The Broken Body Journey To Wholeness:

The Broken Body : Journey to wholeness Jean Vanier, SCM Studyguide: Christian Mission Stephen Spencer, 2014-04-15 Explores the nature of Christian mission in contemporary post modern society This book examines the main historic types of mission in the Christian tradition seeing how they were forged in the cross currents of history and how they continue to be expressed by different Christian communities The Miracle, the Message, the Story Kathryn Spink, 2006 Traces the growth of the I Arche movement over 40 years and the life and thought of Jean Vanier himself

Understanding Sexual Abuse Tim Hein, 2018-02-27 What does the path to healing look like for survivors of sexual abuse And how can ministry leaders pastors and counselors best help them as they walk this difficult road Drawing on both his own experience and his wife s experience as survivors of childhood sexual abuse Tim Hein presents clinical data and resources as well as practical guidance and empathy both for ministry leaders and for survivors themselves Liturgical Spirituality

Stephen Burns, 2013-11-01 Of particular interest to scholars and practitioners across the Anglican Communion with contributions from a wide breadth of scholars Liturgical Spirituality is a collection of Anglican reflections on the spirituality of the liturgy inviting readers into the Church s patterns of prayer seasons of the year and sacramental action With contributions from all over the world from the North Atlantic to Australia the collection helps develop a comprehensive understanding of contemporary Anglican spirituality Spirit and the Politics of Disablement Sharon V.

Betcher, 2007-01-01 Explores the larger significance of disability in cultural political and religious venues Novel aspects of Christian theological tradition emerge in this light Highly original and thought provoking The Enabled Life Roy McCloughry, 2013-09-19 As a much published author social commentator and academic Roy McCloughry is ideally placed to make the latest theological thinking about disability accessible to a wide audience As a person living with epilepsy who regards his condition as a strange gift from God he brings rich personal experience of what it s like to live as a disabled person in a world where acceptance frequently relies on the appearance of normality Attitudes in the Church too can be strangely unsettling People are often embarrassed or fearful in encountering disabled people who are if the Bible is to be believed at the heart of the kingdom of God After all God does not want us to conform to society s stereotype of what is normal but to celebrate diversity by delighting in who we are We do not need to be cured to know God s healing empowering love in our lives Indeed as Roy s deeply moving interview with Jean Vanier underlines the abled may well discover their true humanity through learning from those whose humanity has sometimes been called into question Sharing God's

Keepsakes for the Journey , My Home in L'Arche Geoff Rigby, Stephen Rigby, David Treanor, 2014-12-01 Fifty years ago L Arche was born in a small French town called Trosly when Jean Vanier invited two men with intellectual disabilities living in a Mental Institution to come and live with him One hundred and forty three L Arche Communities now exist in over forty countries Sharing stories has become an essential feature of life within L Arche Communities and forms the basis for developing lasting mutual relationships not only between core members assistants and other members of a Community home but also within the broader L Arche Community Within our L Arche Communities in Australia we have developed a Remembering Celebrating and Dreaming process that encourages core members and companions from within the Community to spend time together getting to know each other dreaming about plans for the future and celebrating lives together Often a core member may not have been afforded an opportunity to share some aspects of their lives or to talk about issues that worry them or what they would like to do to make their lives comfortable Spending time listening and sharing stories helps to facilitate this process and provides an opportunity to share some of these memories and dreams with the broader Community families and friends One of the key parts of the L Arche Mission is to make known the gifts of people with intellectual disabilities and all too often we find that it is not only with those directly involved with core members that these gifts become apparent and have a profound influence but with all who come in contact with them Most of the time the stories that arise from these relationships are not shared outside the L Arche Communities The importance of sharing stories emanates from our history Universally as L Arche welcomed more people into Community we discovered that there was little or no attention paid to the lives and events of core members Many people had lived significant experiences and they needed these listened to and acknowledged as part of who they are and their personal history The primary objective of this book is to share some of these stories from people with and without intellectual disabilities who have been involved in some way within L Arche Communities Living together and sharing as a Community as well as being part of the broader L Arche Australia and International Federation Family involves participation in many activities that involve day to day commitments and organisational demands All of these are part of the L Arche Australia story and we have tried to include snippets of information that highlight some of the background of L Arche together with features from day to day Community life and operation of the various Communities We hope you enjoy these stories and gain a little understanding of the heart of L Arche

The Pastor as Friend? Dan Holder, 2025-01-23 Have you ever wondered what it means for pastors to be friends with people in their churches This is the fascinating question that Dan Holder dives into in this thought provoking book He uses in depth interviews with ordained pastors and their real life struggles and joys to get close to the essence of what friendship and friendliness mean in the pastoral setting Reflecting theologically on the findings and grappling with the thought and experience of figures such as Bonhoeffer Moltmann and C S Lewis he takes up in detail the four elements found to be essential to friendship mutuality affection freedom and openness Then envisioning what revised forms of practice for pastors in a local congregation might look like he formulates nine themes for a fruitful approach to pastoral friendship Holder doesn't shy away from the tough questions or try to offer easy answers Instead he invites readers into a nuanced thoughtful exploration of the topic one that acknowledges both the potential pitfalls and the profound opportunities of these relationships Prepare to be inspired challenged and encouraged Who knows Readers may just discover a new vision for the role of friendship in their own lives and ministries

Sing in a Strange Land Wesley F. Stevens, 2009-01-08 Prison is a strange land a land of deep heartache and sadness Over two million people are serving prison time in America Millions more are carrying the mark of prison as those who were formerly incarcerated including large numbers of men and women who have been released on parole In the midst of such human misery when loosened tongues are freed to sing of God's redemptive love grief is diminished and the prison loses its power

Enabling Grace Susan Mathew, 2025-07-31 People with disabilities can face unique challenges across the globe

particularly in places where there is a lack of awareness and community support for them and their families Dr Susan Mathew a distinguished biblical scholar and mother of a child with special needs presents this disability reading of the Pauline letters with a focus on 2 Corinthians 12:7b-10 in which the apostle presents a paradox of healing as he asserts that God's grace and power are made sufficient in the face of human weakness. In this timely work Dr Mathew explores the theme of disability emphasizing the enabling and transformative power of grace in the lives of persons with disabilities. She brings thorough biblical exegesis and theological insight together with her extensive experience in the ministry of support care and empowerment of children with special needs to present a new understanding of power in weakness. Moving towards a holistic vision of grace in the context of affliction and disability Dr Mathew's reading provides encouragement to those with disabilities and their caregivers as well as highlighting the importance of our mutual response and responsibility as the church and in society.

Feminist Eschatology Emily Pennington, 2016-08-25 Many feminist theologians have made timely and valuable contributions to rethinking the eschaton by framing it as cyclical and by embracing endings as they are experienced by present relational fluid and sensuous bodies. However any sense of eschatological finality or ultimacy has either been rejected or ignored. Feminist Eschatology seeks to think differently about Christian eschatology in light of contributions from feminist theologians noting the numerous and varied critiques they have made of traditional models. These critiques are identified as being directed towards three key claims eschatology is understood to be actuated by a domineering God populated by masculinised beings and disassociated from present lives. Using a form of strategic feminism wherein traits associated with female bodies and some women's experiences of their bodies are used to rethink the end time of the eschaton this book contributes to the meaning and significance of both bodies and eschatology.

Abba's Whisper Alan Davey, Elizabeth Davey, 2017-01-18 There is a longstanding tradition that God whispers in our ears He does not shout It is in the holy whisper writes the Quaker mystic that we hear Abba s voice not in the noise of clamoring crowds or the incessant barrage of social media To hear the voice of God is an awesome thing to know his thoughts to intuit his love to participate in his good pleasure It is both a gift to be received and art to be cultivated It can call to us when we least expect but we can train ourselves to become receptive listeners We need help to separate the cacophony of voices calling to us from the quiet whisper of Abba barely audible Since our wordy world masks the quiet respectful voice of God we need to recognize the primary ways that Abba communicates with his creation We must embrace practices that move us out of lives of distraction and exchange old patterns of living with new ways of seeing and hearing From our deep Christian past we hear the voice of St Augustine murmur Whisper in my heart I am here to save you I shall hear your voice and make haste to clasp you to myself
