New Conversations on the Problems of Identity, Consciousness and Mind Jonathan O. Chimakonam, Uti Ojah Egbai, Samuel T. Segun, Aribiah D. Attioe, 2019-02-23 This book introduces concepts in philosophy of mind and neurophilosophy Inside three scholars offer approaches to the problems of identity consciousness and the mind In the process they open new vistas for thought and raise fresh controversies to some of the oldest problems in philosophy The first chapter focuses on the identity problem The author employs an explanatory model he christened sense phenomenalism to defend the thesis that personal identity is something or a phenomenon that pertains to the observable perceptible aspect of the human person The next chapter explores the problem of consciousness It deploys the new concept equiphenomenalism as a model to show that mental properties are not by products but necessary products of consciousness Herein the notion of qualia is a fundamental and necessary product that must be experienced simultaneously with neural activities for consciousness to be possible The last chapter addresses the mind body problem It adopts the new concept proto phenomenalism as an alternative explanatory model This model eliminates the idea of a mind As such it approaches the mind body problem from a materialistic point of view with many implications such as the meaning lessness of our existence the possibility of thought engineering as well as religious implications

American Book Publishing Record ,2000 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Bibliografisch Repertorium Van de Wijsbegeerte ,2001 Rethinking the School Curriculum John White, 2004 In 2000 the school curriculum in England was equipped for the first time in the country's history with an extensive set of aims and purposes In this book leading experts in the teaching of school subjects examine the significance of the new aims for the reform of the curriculum In two general introductory chapters John White discusses the validity of the aims and how they might be realized in schools The remainder of the book focuses on subject specific areas and how these need to be brought into line with the new aims so as to produce a more relevant and enjoyable curriculum experience for pupils including more opportunities for choice of activities The book concludes with suggestions about how government policy on the curriculum should now succeed This portrayal of the school curriculum today and how it could be developed in line with the new aims will be of interest to those studying education with a particular focus on the areas of curriculum assessment school management philosophy of education and the history of education

Critique of Beckett Criticism Peter

John Murphy, 1994 A survey of Beckett criticism in English French and German Samuel Beckett 1906 1989 is an important figure in 20th century literary history his plays such as Waiting for Godot and Endgame have acquired a world wide reputation and his novels have proved important touchstones for the critical debates in contemporary literary theory Born in Dublin Beckett spent most of his writing life in France and wrote equally well in French and English his German was also fluent allowing him to direct his own plays in German theatres Any attempt to deal with Beckett must therefore consider the critical response his works have provoked in all three languages A Critique of Beckett Criticism is the first attempt in book form to give a comprehensive survey of the history and scope of Beckett criticism in French English and German Three parallel chapters examine the three major strands of Beckett criticism retracing its development using a historical perspective and pointing out different trends currents and fashions in opinion Directions for further research are also suggested P J MURPHY is a lecturer in contemporary British literature at the University College of the Cariboo British Columbia WERNER HUBER is a professor of English literature at Chemnitz University of Technology ROLF BREUER is professor of English literature at the University of Paderborn KONRAD SCHOELL is professor of French literature at the Pädagogische Hochschule Erfurt

Neither the Time nor the Place Christopher Castiglia, Susan Gillman, 2022-05-17 The usefulness of time and place as defining categories would seem to be baked into the very notion of nineteenth century American literary studies yet they have challenged scholars practically since the field's inception In Neither the Time nor the Place seventeen critics consider how the space time dyad has both troubled and invigorated Americanist scholarship in recent decades and make explicit how time and place are best considered in tandem interrogating each other Taken together the essays challenge depictions of place and time as bounded and linear fixed and teleological or mere ideological constructions They address both familiar and unexpected objects practices and texts including a born digital Melville documents from the construction of the Panama Canal the hollow earth the desiring body textual editing marble statuary the sound of frogs spirit photography and twentieth century Civil War fiction The essays draw on an equally wide variety of critical methodologies integrating affect studies queer theory book history information studies sound studies environmental humanities new media studies and genre theory to explore the unexpected dimensions that emerge when time and place are taken as a unit The pieces are organized around considerations of citizenship environment historiography media and bodies five political cultural and or methodological foci for some of the most provocative new work being done in American literary studies Neither the Time nor the Place is a book not only for scholars and students already well grounded in the study of nineteenth century American literature and culture but for anyone scholar or student looking for a roadmap to some of the most vibrant work in the field Contributors Wai Chee Dimock Stephanie Foote Matthew Pratt Guterl Coleman Hutchison Rodrigo Lazo Caroline Levander Robert S Levine Christopher Looby Dana Luciano Timothy Marr Dana D Nelson Ifeoma C Kiddoe Nwankwo Mark Storey Matthew E Suazo and Edward Sugden

Humanistic Critique of Education Peter M.

Smudde,2010-02-03 Humanistic Critique of Education s ten essays by noted scholars address the subject of educational policy methods ideology and more with stress upon the rhetoric of contemporary teaching and learning Humanistic Critique of Education focuses on education as symbolic action as the foundation of discovery and thus as equipment for living in Kenneth Burke s terms These essays will spark dialogue about improving education in democratic societies through the lens of humanism Introduction to the Study of Religion Leroyce Miles,2018-08-07 One thing is clear that fighting with other human beings in the name of religion is subhuman As a religious man we are fellow travellers in the direction of the realm of spirit Here the nomenclature of Hindus Muslims Christians etc ceases to be meaningful Of course we have to go very far and we have not made any beginning yet However at present the advaitic principle of difference less Brahman can serve the purpose of harmonizing all religions Here we have adopted this principle Secondly the key concepts of different religions have been shown to mingle into one another The book attempts to interrogate the categories used in western discourse in the study of religion In doing so the book outlines a broad overview of the discussions on issues relating to the methods and theories in the study of religion The book provides an insight into some of the key issues that need clarity in dealing with religions This scholarly presentation is a must read for students of religion culture and philosophy and for those involved with the struggles of the subaltern community Maimonides and the Shaping of the Jewish Canon James A. Diamond,2014-10-27 This book examines a wide range of theologians philosophers and exegetes who share a passionate engagement with Maimonides assaulting adopting subverting or adapting his philosophical and jurisprudential thought This ongoing enterprise is critical to any appreciation of the broader scope of Jewish law philosophy biblical interpretation and Kabbalah The Politics of Judgment Kennan Ferguson,2007-02-01 Drawing on recent contributions to philosophy economics cultural studies feminism psychology and anthropology The Politics of Judgment demonstrates how modern political identities depend upon and are formed by aesthetic judgment Philosophy of Law Mark Tebbit,2017-01-20 This book provides an ideal starting point for students of philosophy and law Setting it clearly against the historical background the author leads readers into the heart of the philosophical questions that dominate philosophy of law today and provides an overview of the contending theories that have sought to resolve these problems The book is structured in three parts around the key issues and themes in philosophy of law what is the law the major legal theories addressing the question of what we mean by law including natural law legal positivism and legal realism the reach of the law the various legal theories on the nature and extent of the law s authority with regard to obligation and civil disobedience rights liberty and privacy and criminal law responsibility and mens rea intention recklessness and murder legal defences insanity and philosophies of punishment Revisions include a more detailed analysis of natural law new chapters on common law and the development of positivism a reassessment of the Austin Hart dispute in the light of recent criticism of Hart a new chapter on the natural law positivist controversy over Nazi law and legality and new chapters on criminal law extending the analysis of the dispute over
