The Caretakers Caitlin Galante DeAngelis,2024-01-16 When World War I ended hundreds of British veterans stayed in France to work for the newly chartered Imperial War Graves Commission Through the 1920s and 1930s these veteran gardeners married local women raised bilingual children and dedicated themselves to caring for the graves of their fallen comrades When World War II swept through Europe in 1940 more than 200 War Graves gardeners were stranded in Nazi occupied France Their bosses explicitly ordered them to remain at their posts even when their villages were under attack by the invading Germans While some escaped others were arrested by the Nazis A handful managed to stay free and join the French Resistance With their English language skills and unshakable loyalty to the Allied cause the gardeners and their families took on crucial roles in the effort to save British and American airmen shot down in France In some cases they hid the airmen in World War I cemeteries In The Caretakers internationally renowned cemetery expert Caitlin Galante DeAngelis tells the true story of three of these unlikely heroes Ben Leech a barman from Manchester who became a cemetery gardener in Beaumont Hamel and joined the Resistance Rosine Witton the wife of a British gardener who served as a key conductor on the famous Comet Line and survived Ravensbrück and Robert Armstrong an Irish gardener who worked for the Resistance until he was captured by the Nazis and sentenced to death Through meticulous research never before published journals and papers and compassionate storytelling DeAngelis honors the sacrifices made by War Graves gardeners and their families

The Caretakers William C O'Brien,2013-05-07 War famine disease just a few of the many evils with which we share our world and daily lives but never aware that they exist as physical forms escaped from the prison world of Exilia The key to Exilia lost since before recorded history has now been found The entrance to the prison world has been discovered and the story told to the children by the last of the caretakers is just the beginning of what will become a quest of daring confrontation humour and spine tingling terror The world has been waiting for millennia for the key to be found for the long awaited moment to arrive when the defenders of good would be freed from their own imprisonment to continue their fight against the evils But in order to so Gabby and the brothers must first enter the world of Exilia and fulfil their quest Guided by the map on the key they must travel through a world where time itself doesn't exist where the extraordinary is the ordinary the unbelievable is the believable and nightmares are a reality The creatures of evil must be confronted battled or avoided A future of peace and tranquillity or pain and suffering will depend on either success or failure But can their quest be fulfilled can they succeed

Father Jean came and stood next to Darby as he reclined and said I will be returning to the abbey I will pray for yer soul Darby and ask god what ye need to pay It could be quite a substantial sum as ye have lived a very sinful life Yes yesI know but it will be worth it to avoid the fiery flames For the first time and in a perplexed tone of voice Christian spoke to Father Jean You are not serious Making Darby pay for forgiveness a gift that is freely given With a look of incredulity Father Jean replied Darbys sins are great and the cost of penance must equally fit his crimes You heard him The next time he meets the Death Angel he will be taken to Hell and left there If he doesnt pay for his sins he has no hope of avoiding the fiery flames Shaking in anger Christian looked straight into the eyes of Darby OHerlihy and said Do not listen to this fool Darby To be a Christian is to believe that Jesus Christ came to this world to offer His life as a ransom for those who would believe and entrust their lives to Him His shed blood upon the cross is the payment for your sins It is not something we as men pay for monetarily If that be the case then the poor and needy are doomed to die and to be carried to the fiery pit to burn there forever separated from a loving and caring God It is written For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son John 3 16 KJV that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life In anger Father Jean responded Where are these written Words you speak of and who has them Are you the Caretaker of them If you are produce them so that we can see them for ourselves The Caretakers Amanda Bestor-Siegal,2022-04-12 Bestor Siegal switches

The Caretaker Roberta Dupont, 2020-12-08 Roberta Dupont found herself as her husband's caretaker during the last ten years of his life. His last five years were spent in two long-term care facilities where Roberta spent four days out of every week making sure his needs were met as well as becoming involved in the activities for other residents. This gave Roberta the chance to witness first-hand the way in which the residents were treated. There were a few cases of extreme abuse that Roberta has included in THE CARETAKER. Fortunately, the number of good caring people outweighs the bad. The long-term health care system in Canada needs to change. Action is desperately needed. Roberta details the history of abuse in our country's long-term health care system and details what she saw firsthand, revealing the scary truth that Canadians are very much vulnerable to a neglectful system. Being a caretaker for someone you love is painful. During this trying decade of unprecedented selflessness, Roberta met many caretakers who were filled with anxiety, frustration, and depression. She learned that she needed to rely on her own personal strength to cope with being a caretaker. Through writing prose and poetry and her love of art, Roberta was able to close the door to the past, forget about the future, and be only in the moment. The Caretaker includes the beautiful collection of prose and poetry composed during this time spent caring for her dying husband.

The Routledge History of the Domestic Sphere in Europe Joachim Eibach, Margareth Lanzinger, 2020-12-29 This book addresses the multifaceted history of the domestic sphere in Europe from the Age of Reformation to the emergence of modern society. By focusing on daily practice, interaction, and social relations, it shows continuities and social change in European history from an interior perspective. The Routledge History of the Domestic Sphere in Europe contains a variety of approaches from different regions that each pose a challenge to commonplace views such as the emergence of confessional cultures of private life and of separate spheres of men and women. By analyzing a plethora of manifold sources including diaries, court records, paintings, and domestic advice literature, this volume provides an overview of the domestic sphere as a location of work and consumption, conflict and cooperation, emotions and intimacy, and devotion and education. The book sheds light on changing relations between spouses, parents and children, masters and servants, or apprentices and humans and animals or plants, thereby exceeding the notion of the modern nuclear family. This volume will be of great use to upper-level graduates, postgraduates, and experienced scholars.
