The Caring Persons Guide To Handling The Severely Multiply Handicapped:

The Caring Person's Guide to Handling the Severely Multiply Handicapped Rachel Golding, Liz Goldsmith, 1986 The Education of People with Profound and Multiple Handicaps Judy Sebba, 1988 Designed as a basis for in service courses for staff working with people who have profound and multiple handicaps Topics covered include assessment curriculum teaching methods microelectronics problem behaviour and physiotherapy Making Leisure Provision for People with Profound Learning and Multiple Disabilities James Hogg, J. Cavet, 2013-11-11 A Sensory Curriculum for Very Special People Flo Longhorn, 2011-09-12 This uniquely valuable book arose from the author's work with profoundly disabled children in a special needs school The sensory impairment of the children meant that they were unable to learn from traditional teaching methods as they were unaware of the world around them Our very first awareness of our surroundings and ourselves come through our senses of smell touch taste sight hearing and movement and without them we are isolated To benefit from the normal school curriculum children with sensory impairment must learn to develop each of their senses individually and in combination a process the non handicapped child goes through spontaneously and unconsciously This book outlines a curriculum for each of the senses in turn using stimuli that can be varied to suit the age of the child or young person Demonstrating how these can be combined to create a multisensory experience and how this newly developed awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum This book was developed from the author's work with profoundly disabled children their sensory impairment meant that traditional teaching was unsuccessful as they were unaware of the world around them Flo Longhorn sets out a curriculum for developing each sense both individually and in combination using stimuli that can be varied according to the age of the child This book shows how these techniques can be amalgamated to create multisensory experiences and how this new awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum Designed for teachers and parents of children with profound multiple disabilities combined with sensory and physical impairment this has become a classic work Enabling Access Barry Carpenter, Chris Stevens, Keith Bovair, Rob Ashdown, 2014-04-08 First Published in 1997 In special education we are at last in a good position to offer pupils a broad and balanced curriculum which is relevant to their needs and which is based on the same range of provision enjoyed by all pupils Such a curriculum can only be planned as a cohesive whole compartmentalizing aspects of the whole curriculum risks seeing one part as having more merit or worth than another The whole curriculum in all schools will vary depending on local needs and opportunities In special education it is important that we embrace that whole curriculum using its diversity and opportunity to plan for breadth balance and relevance This book makes a significant contribution to the developments in planning for access to the whole curriculum Learning Disability Jeanette Rennie, 2007-04-04 This is an updated version of a comprehensive resource for health professionals working with people primarily adults who have learning disabilities intellectual disabilities It will provide a comprehensive overview of the diverse approaches to treatment and management issues as well as methods to help them achieve the rehabilitation aims including the usage of non healthcare facilities Split into three sections the book covers 1 Underlying theory 2 Assessment 3 Practical methods of physical treatment and management Combines history and the theory underlying learning disability and its associated conditions assessment and practical physical treatment Achieves carefully assessed aims through methods appropriate to the individual client Funding suggestions for working in non healthcare situations Features a breadth of content that also appeals to non physiotherapists

A Framework for Learning Caroline Allen,2013-10-23 This book offers carers practitioners and managers a tried and tested structure for enabling adults with a range of complex needs to develop their individual skills and experience It also provides a flexible framework which is suitable for specialist colleges and training centers for people with learning difficulties A Carer's Odyssey Anna Chan,2011 In the first part of A Carer's Odyssey Anna Chan describes how she and her husband Jeff were devastated 16 years ago by the diagnosis of their daughter Emma's severe neurological disorder called Rett Syndrome They tried everything with little success including a course of cranial acupuncture in China The lack of understanding and empathy of disabled people in China is saddening while the way in which extended families give their support is inspirational Part two of the book tells the story of how Jeff became mentally ill and how Anna had to cope with an extra burden It details her battle to get Jeff's illness recognised and treated and her struggle to understand Jeff and help him recover Part three develops the positive lessons learnt from both Anna's professional work as a Carers Support Worker and Carer Lead for an NHS trust and from some heart warming and inspirational accounts of great achievers who have suffered or do suffer from physical or psychological disabilities Learning Disabilities Eamon Shanley,Thomas A. Starrs,1993 Reflecting the latest changes that have taken place in the philosophy of care for people with learning disabilities this edition describes practical means of improving quality of life for people with learning disabilities and promotes self help

Nursing Times, Nursing Mirror ,1992 Social Service Abstracts ,1987 The Irish Journal of Psychology ,1988
