Concern Mounts For Missing Teen

Hawkins Police are growing increasingly concerned for a 16-year-old girl who has been missing for a week.

Barbara Holland, pictured right, vanished on Tuesday November 8th after leaving a party at a friend's house at around 10:30 p.m.

A police spokesperson said: Barbara is white, 5ft 9in tall, medium built with short red hair and brown eyes."

Police say "extensive enquiries" are ongoing to find her.

History Of Abuse Haunts Local Lab

A public inquiry has opened into allegations of extensive and repeated abuse of patients at Hawkins National Laboratory. This is not the first time the laboratory has been under fire.

Only 12 years ago local resident Terry Ives accused research scientist Dr. Martin Brenner of snatching her baby, after he claimed she had miscarried the child in the third trimester.

Ives filed a lawsuit against Dr. Brenner and his facility after the district attorney's office declined to press charges. Page 6

The former missing child Will Byers has been found after a week of searching. He is presently in stable condition in Hawkins General Hospital.

Byers' mother, Joyce Byers, alleged that Will was the subject of a secret government program run by the Hawkins National Laboratory.

The investigation comes amidst a massive investigation into the hidden organization and its elaborate experimentation in perusal of mind control. Will Byers, 12, was laid to rest at Hawkins cemetery by his devastated family on November 11, following a medical examiner signing a death certificate and releasing a body believed to be his.

Only a day later, the Hawkins Middle School student showed up alive after getting lost in the surrounding woods.

Byers was reported missing on November 7 by his mother after he failed to return home from his friend's house the night before.

When a body of a boy fitting Will's description was found by an Indiana State Trooper on November 9 at the Sattler Quarry, officials thought it could be him. But the body was so badly decomposed that a formal identification could not take place.

A coroner then signed a death certificate, which allowed an undertaker to remove his body for funeral services and burial.

An investigation has now been launched into whose body is in fact buried in the grave thought to be Will's. They are seeking an order to exhume the body in an attempt to identify the boy.

Alter Eggo. Young Girl In Disguise Wanted For Shoplifting Waffles

Police are asking for help identifying a young girl accused of stealing from a local supermarket.

The theft happened on Saturday Nov. 12th at 1:30 p.m. at Bradley's Big Boy located on Center Street.

Police say the disheveled girl took four boxes of Kellogg's Eggo waffles and left the store without paying. An employee attempted to apprehend the girl, but the glass doors shattered behind her.

Police described the suspect as between 11-12 years old with a shaved head, but has been seen in town disguised in a blonde wig. She was wearing a pink dress and a blue jacket.

The girl is also wanted in connection with the assault of 14-year old Hawkins Middle School student Troy Walsh. Page 4
