story of Trafalgar that well fought battle against a noble foe who is now a gallant ally and those of the North Sea 1914 and 1915 will show the revolutions in modern naval warfare Nelson had determined to meet and beat Villeneuve in command of the allied French and Spanish fleet which left Cadiz at the end of September 1805 The French admiral did not know how near Nelson was To day the means of communication are vastly different and battleships are able to discover the proximity of their foes much more easily than in those other days It is one of the great changes in naval warfare So it was that the allied fleets were dogged until Nelson decided it was time to strike On the 21st the rival fleets met The English fleet was in order of battle two lines with an advanced squadron of eight fast sailing two deckers Nelson in the Victory led one column Collingwood in the Royal Sovereign the other About half past eight Villeneuve ordered his fleet to draw up in such array and position that if necessary they could make for Cadiz but the man uvre was badly executed and the fleet assumed a crescent shaped formation into which the English columns were sailing Nelson was longing for the fight so were his men But although the officers on board the Victory were eager for the fight they would have been content to forgo the honour of opening the fight in favour of some other ship fearing lest Nelson should be killed
