The Boy Who Snuck In Apples:

The Boy Who Broke the School Amanda J Harrington,2013-05-25 When Daniel the school bully is given the gift of a stone he doesn't realise that every time he does something wrong the stone will grow When the stone is big enough it will come for him If he can learn his lesson in time and change before the stone grows too big then he can still be saved Otherwise this bully will find out what happens when you do exactly what you want The Boy Who Broke the School is the story of Daniel the school bully who thinks he is tough enough for anything It takes a little bit of real magic to show him how wrong he can be Daniel is a funny resourceful cheeky and genuinely brave character who needs other people a lot more than he realises He finds himself in unexpected danger and must change in time to save himself Along the way he needs the help of his former victims and new friends as well as locking horns with his teacher headmistress and even the school itself
