British Empire over the centuries The Oxford History of the British Empire: Volume V: Historiography Robin Winks,1999-10-21 The Oxford History of the British Empire is a major new assessment of the Empire in the light of recent scholarship and the progressive opening of historical records From the founding of colonies in North America and the West Indies in the seventeenth century to the reversion of Hong Kong to China at the end of the twentieth British imperialism was a catalyst for far reaching change The Oxford History of the British Empire as a comprehensive study helps us to understand the end of Empire in relation to its beginning the meaning of British imperialism for the ruled as well as for the rulers and the significance of the British Empire as a theme in world history This fifth and final volume shows how opinions have changed dramatically over the generations about the nature role and value of imperialism generally and the British Empire more specifically The distinguished team of contributors discuss the many and diverse elements which have influenced writings on the Empire the pressure of current events access to primary sources the creation of relevant university chairs the rise of nationalism in former colonies decolonization and the Cold War They demonstrate how the study of empire has evolved from a narrow focus on constitutional issues to a wide ranging enquiry about international relations the uses of power and impacts and counterimpacts between settler groups and native peoples The result is a thought provoking cultural and intellectual inquiry into how we understand the past and whether this understanding might affect the way we behave in the future

Abolitionism and Imperialism in Britain, Africa, and the Atlantic Derek R. Peterson, 2010-01-05 The abolition of the slave trade is normally understood to be the singular achievement of eighteenth century British liberalism Abolitionism and Imperialism in Britain Africa and the Atlantic expands both the temporal and the geographic framework in which the history of abolitionism is conceived Abolitionism was a theater in which a variety of actors slaves African rulers Caribbean planters working class radicals British evangelicals African political entrepreneurs played a part The Atlantic was an echo chamber in which abolitionist symbols ideas and evidence were generated from a variety of vantage points These essays highlight the range of political and moral projects in which the advocates of abolitionism were engaged and in so doing it joins together geographies that are normally studied in isolation Where empires are often understood to involve the government of one people over another Abolitionism and Imperialism shows that British values were formed debated and remade in the space of empire Africans were not simply objects of British liberals benevolence They played an active role in shaping and extending the values that Britain now regards as part of its national character This book is therefore a contribution to the larger scholarship about the nature of modern empires Contributors Christopher Leslie Brown Seymour Drescher Jonathon Glassman Boyd Hilton Robin Law Phillip D Morgan Derek R Peterson John K Thornton

Facing Empire Kate Fullagar, Michael A McDonnell, 2018-11-01 A major reframing of world history this anthology interrogates eighteenth and nineteenth century European imperialism from the perspective of indigenous peoples Rather than casting indigenous peoples as bystanders in the Age of Revolution Facing Empire examines the active roles they played in helping to shape the course of modern imperialism Focusing on indigenous peoples experiences of the British Empire the volume s comparative approach highlights the commonalities of indigenous struggles and strategies across the globe Facing Empire charts a fresh way forward for historians of empire indigenous studies and the Age of Revolution Covering the Indian and Pacific Oceans Australia and West and South Africa as well as North America this book looks at the often misrepresented and underrepresented complexity of the indigenous experience on a global scale Contributors Tony Ballantyne Justin Brooks Colin G Calloway Kate Fullagar Bill Gammage Robert Kenny Shino Konishi Elspeth Martini Michael A McDonnell Jennifer Newell Joshua L Reid Daniel K Richter Rebecca Shumway Sujit Sivasundaram Nicole Ulrich Journal of the Royal African Society Royal African Society,1928 A Guide for the Study of British Caribbean History, 1763-1834 Lowell Joseph Ragatz,1932
