Holohan, 2002-08-23 Be strong Angel Be strong I sprinted from soccer to cross country practice quietly reminding myself what I had to do to make it through the season Staying in motion was the only way to keep the pain in my feet under control If my friends or coaches found out how badly my feet hurt they d prevent me from playing both sports from doing the only things that could take my mind off my other big secret the problems my parents were having Angel The Clubwomen's

Daughters Gwen Tarbox, 2014-04-23 The author provides an interdisciplinary cultural study of the evolution of Progressive era girls peer groups their representation in popular girls fiction and the influence of these communities both real and fictional upon young women s lives during the years leading up to the Second World War The writers featured in this volume were the first generation of New Women whose ability to enter traditionally male spaces such as the college campus the playing field the wilderness and the office was facilitated by their membership in women s clubs political and religious organizations and athletic teams Eager to promote the idea that same sex group activities would lead to female empowerment these clubwomen targeted young girls as their intended audience and developed an idealized fictional portrait of female cooperation that girls could replicate in their own lives By adding to our knowledge of girls cultural history the author gives voice to a segment of the population that was and still is at the center of society s debates concerning the appropriate roles for girls and women Authors discussed include Louisa May Alcott Emma Dunham Kelley Laura Lee Hope pseudonym for Lilian Garis Carolyn Keene pseudonym for Mildred Wirt Benson and Margaret Sutton Left Out Maureen Holohan,2001-09-01 A girl doesn t belong on the all star team She isn t tough enough The coaches and parents didn t even bother to whisper To them I was not an all star I was the girl playing shortstop I was the girl up to bat I was the easy out For weeks I went to practice and stared down a coach who lobbed me the ball and stuck me on the bench Then I went home to a father who told me I needed to play harder and study more Nothing I did on the field or in school was ever enough One day I stood up at the plate with what felt like three strikes already against me It came down to one pitch one swing one moment to prove them all wrong Rosie Sideline Blues Maureen Holohan,2002-01-27 I should be an all star I should be player of the game All my coach had to do was open her eyes Then she d see my all star MVP All American potential and I could start filling up my trophy case Yet for reasons beyond my comprehension I ended up riding the pine and singing the blues ninety nine percent of the time Then my volleyball woes took a back seat to the task of bringing the gold home to Broadway Ave in the Brightest Stars academic competition While my dad worked double shifts to pay the bills I knew my mother was watching over me from heaven I had to get in the game and I had to win Wil Everybody's Favorite Maureen Holohan,2002-01-19 Sweet P The Real Deal Big Time Some kids told me they d pay cold cash just to have one of my nicknames Even the big talking boys begged me for games of one on one Audiences crowded the courts as I smiled politely racked up my points and took care of my basketball business The fans always rooted for me which was cool but I needed a break from the hoops spotlight I thought going to soccer camp with the ballplayers would give me a chance to live in someone else s shadow for once But when we arrived the coaches pegged me as the superstar the second I stepped out of the car Soon I found myself running with a few campers who bent the rules Meet the Ballplayers a fearless five with a passion for sports hanging with friends and life on Broadway Avenue Picturebook 99 Amy Gary,Cyd Moore,1999-04 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2002 Independent Publisher ,1998 Cool Women Hot Jobs , Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1999-12 Popular Series Fiction for Middle School and Teen Readers Rebecca L.
