

Best Buddy

Everything messy
And you feel dizzy
Have something fizzy
Before you go crazy
When you are boozy
Your eyes are foggy
You walk around the city
Your heart is empty
Some feel pity

But there is somebody
A little bit funny
Your best buddy
Who loves you honey
Turns everything sunny
Though very busy
Still with you pretty

Poems From the Heart Jean Marie Norman,2024-02-27 This book of poetry started with no thought process at all A few poems written over many years Mostly with very personal messages to family and friends Poems to my husband my grandchildren my friends Then for unknown reasons I started writing about life My life the lives of people I know and simply life in the world in which I live Many of these poems lean close to my heart thus the title They certainly do reflect my personal thoughts on life love loss and laughter Asterisked titles are titles given to me over time by my BFF who challenged me to write the poem You might say she spurred me on The world I grew up in and the world my grandchildren are growing up in are so significantly different it s sometimes hard to even imagine My poems reflect the changes both good and bad as perceived by the writer Some strike on my past some on the sadness of today s world and some simply on the joy I see in life I hope you find comfort humour and a wee bit of quietude in some of the poems and that you see the beauty of life both in the human factor and the world we ve been given to care for      Very Best (almost) Friends Paul B. Janeczko,1999 A collection of poems celebrating the good and bad things about friendship giving loneliness and love by such authors as Myra Cohn Livingston John Ciardi and Gwendolyn Brooks      Hampton Institute Best Books on,1940 Compiled by Mentor A Howe and Roscoe E Lewis      Poetry in Literature for Youth Angela Leeper,2006-03-28 Poetry in Literature for Youth offers teachers librarians parents and students with an instrumental guide for incorporating all forms of poetry into the curriculum More than 900 annotated entries provide descriptions of books and other resources including anthologies classics various poetry formats poetry novels multicultural poetry performance poetry teen poetry poet biographies and curriculum connections Educators who are often unaware of the poetry resources available particularly for young adults will welcome this book with open arms Lists for building a core poetry collection along with resources for teaching poetry criticism and writing electronic poetry resources booktalks classroom activities and lesson plans complement this guide Author Geographic Grade Subject and Title indexes are also included For anyone interested in knowing more about poetry in literature this is an indispensable guide      Bulletin of Additions to the Libraries, Classified, Annotated and Indexed Glasgow (Scotland). Public Libraries,1919      The Genres of Thomson's The Seasons Sandro Jung,Kwinten Van De Walle,2018-09-01 Critics since the eighteenth century have puzzled over the form of James Thomson s composite long poem The Seasons 1730 1744 1746 its generically hybrid make up and its relationship to established genres both Classical and modern The textual condition of the work is complicated by the fact that it started as a stand alone poem Winter 1726 but was subsequently expanded as part of a revision process that lasted almost two decades through the addition of three further seasons poems Transforming from primarily devotional poem to georgic account of the role of man s laboring role in the creation the meaning of The Seasons shifted with each addition of new material Each revision introduced diverse subject matter while existing material was reorganized and occasionally moved from one season installment to another The Genres of Thomson's The Seasons is the first collection of essays exclusively devoted to the study of the work s formal heterogeneity polyvocality and polygeneric character All contributions examine the different modes descriptive reflective pastoral hymnal amatory epic georgic dramatic discourses political sentimental scientific and kinds that cooperate to make up the different installments and variants of The Seasons They probe the multifarious interactions between different genres and modes and how a renewed focus on the form of Thomson s long poem will result in an understanding of the processual character of The Seasons as a synthesizing simulacrum of various discourses and theories of composition The volume s essays map the generic anatomy of the poem in its different incarnations They shed light on the poet s conception of the descriptive long poem and his engaging with formal traditions that would have enabled contemporaneous readers to conceive of The Seasons as an assimilating and learned work to be read through both the works of the Classics and moderns Contributions revisit models explaining the structural complexity of The Seasons proposing others in their stead and consider Thomson as the author of a long poem in relation to other poets both English and in a transnational study Swedish The poem is furthermore contextualized in terms of sexuality and animal studies

The Poetry of Han-shan Robert G. Henricks,1990-03-22 This is an annotated English translation of the poetry of Han shan Cold Mountain a 7th or 8th century Chinese Buddhist recluse who wrote many poems about his life alone in the hills Many of his poems describe the mountains where he lived in dramatic yet appealing terms while at the same time symbolizing in Zen fashion the Buddhist quest for enlightenment Han shan became a cult figure in the Ch an Zen tradition and legends portray him and his companion Shih te as eccentrics who said and did nonsensical things Han shan does often write on unusual topics with some of his poems being clever insights that just happen to be metric and rhymed His language is simple and direct his images and symbols fresh and bold While the literary value of his work has for the most part been overlooked this book provides line by line literary analysis of some of the more artistically interesting poems Henricks work represents therefore a major contribution to the study of Chinese literature and Chinese religion
