Department of Public Instruction, 1913 Building W. B. Yeats's Later Poetry Tomoko Iwatsubo, 2024-09-09 This book explores Yeats s later poetry through the metaphor of the poetic tower where different kinds of building architectural textual political and symbolic were closely interrelated It chronologically examines Yeats s tower poems composed during a period of dramatic personal and national transformation from 1915 to 1932 Within a year after the Easter Rising in Dublin Yeats acquired a half ruined Norman tower in County Galway Ireland which had enthralled him for the past two decades and textually and architecturally constructed it into a focus of his life and work Interweaving the account of the renovation of the actual building and the textual construction in the socio historical contexts the book reveals the evolution of Yeats's multiplex tower as an organizing principle of his later poetry. Using the archive of correspondence and manuscript materials of relevant poems including those which have thus far escaped close attention the book offers close textual genetic analyses and a diachronic view of Yeats's tower poetry which with its foundations laid decades earlier he built in the collections from The Wild Swans at Coole 1919 to The Winding Stair and Other Poems 1933 Highlighting the delicate exchange between poetry and biography as well as between the textual architecture and the actual one identifying a turning point in the making of each tower oriented poem and proposing some draft dating revisions this first book length systematic study on the process of Yeats's creation of the tower casts an unfamiliar light on a familiar yet underexplored landmark in modern poetry and makes his step by step construction work come alive The South in the Building of the Nation, In 1900 there was a general agreement among Southerners on the need for a comprehensive history of the Southern states It had been and was a nation sharing beliefs traditions and culture This series originally published in 1909 is a record of the South s part in the making of the American nation It portrays the character the genius the achievements and the progress in the life of the Southern people The purpose of the two final volumes is to round out this historical account by focusing on the Southern men and women who have contributed in a marked degree to the life and development of the South and the nation Written from a sympathetic point of view volumes XI and XII constitute a guick reference to these leaders Limitations of space may have led to the omission of some figures that another collection might have included No attempt at glorification is made and accuracy of social and historical setting is a priority Character personality and individuality have always been treasured in the South Those qualities are celebrated here Volume XI lists entries for individuals with last names starting with the letters A through I including Thomas Jefferson Henry Clay and John C Calhoun The Bookman .1912 Building of Vrndāvana Kiyokazu Okita, Rembert Lutjeharms, 2023-12-28 The small town of V nd vana is today one of the most vibrant places of pilgrimage in northern India Throngs of pilgrims travel there each year to honour the sacred land of K a s youth and to visit many of its temples The Building of V nd vana explores the complex history of this town s early modern origins Bringing together scholars from various disciplines to examine history architecture art ritual theology and literature in this pivotal period the book examines how these various disciplines were used to create develop and map V nd vana as the most prominent place of pilgrimage for devotees of K a Contributors are Guy L Beck M ns Broo David Buchta John Stratton Hawley Barbara A Holdrege Rembert Lutjeharms Cynthia D Packert and Heidi Pauwels Medieval Allegory and the Building of the New Jerusalem Ann Raftery Meyer, 2003 The chantry movement in late medieval England is situated in this context and leads to a demonstration of the movement's associations with the highly wrought poem Pearl and its companion poems the book analyses Pearl as medieval architecture offering fresh perspectives on its elaborate construction and historical context BOOK JACKET The Building in the Text Roy Eriksen, 2010-11 In The Building in the Text Roy Eriksen shows that Renaissance writers conceived of their texts in accordance with architectural principles His approach opens the way to wide ranging discussions of the structure and meaning of a variety of literary texts and also provides new insights into the famed architectural ekphrases of Alberti and Vasari Analyzing such words as plot topos fabrica and stanza Eriksen discloses the fundamental spatial symmetries and complexities in the writings of Ariosto Shakespeare and Milton among other major figures Ultimately his book uncovers and clarifies a tradition of literary architecture that is rooted in antiquity and based on correspondences regarded as ordering principles of the cosmos Eriksen's book will be of interest to art historians historians of literature and those concerned with the classical heritage rhetoric music and architecture The Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham,1921 The Dial ,1885 Poems for Building Reading Skills Level 1 Timothy Rasinski,Karen McGuigan Brothers,2010-03-15 Enchant and motivate beginning readers with poetry that is fun to read and perform Coauthored by fluency expert Timothy Rasinski this creative resource for grade 1 students encourages fluency and word study through playful original content that will engage both reluctant and skilled readers The easy to use standards based lessons and purposeful activity pages address key literacy skills Each book also includes an Audio CD that can be used to support fluency and comprehension The South in the Building of the Nation Fleming, Walter Lynwood, Childe Harold's pilgrimage, The giaour, The siege of Corinth [and other poems].
