

The Buried Day

Cecil Day Lewis

The Buried Day:

The Buried Day Cecil Day Lewis, 1960 This autobiography which takes the author's life up to 1940 is more than a narrative of events It is a self portrait and one of ruthless honesty a writer s attempt to discover his own identity Buried Day Cecil Day-Lewis,1960 1915, ПППП ПП The Final Days of Edgar Allan Poe David F. Gaylin, 2024-04-18 Occurring in a time of primitive medicine and inconsistent record keeping Poe's death has become one of the enduring mysteries of American literature David F Gaylin s book marks the first attempt to offer a comprehensive and balanced study of this historical event After chronicling the circumstances that may have contributed to the poet's death the book examines key details about the story It traces Poe s movements and personal encounters before also exploring how Poe was handled and treated by others who attempted to come to his aid Proceeding with the liveliness of a detective story the discussion sheds new light on these events and it offers new information about the burial of Poe's body and the subsequent relocations of his tomb With the addition of supplementary reference materials including a register of formally proposed causes of death a timeline of relevant events and a map of Poe's final movements in Baltimore this book is an essential resource for both scholars and general readers seeking answers to the mystery of Poe s death British Fiction in the 1930s James Gindin, 2016-07-27 British Fiction in the 1930s studies the literary climate of the British 1930s through a critical treatment of some of its influential and socially representative fiction The works depict in various ways a culture under the stress of seemingly insoluble economic and intensifying international dilemmas a culture that seems betrayed by the promise of its past and the paralysis of its present The fiction considers transforming solutions individual and sexual rebellions as well as the fears and attractions of social and political change The Book of Days Robert Chambers, 1863 The Folklorist Eileen O'Finlan, 2023-10-01 1830s Birch Falls Vermont One by one Jerusha Kendall s siblings fall victim to consumption the scourge of the 19th century Devastated by the loss of her children Jerusha's mother Mary is horrified over the outlandish folk remedy proposed by her dearest friend Lavinia Unable to divert the people of Birch Falls from carrying out Lavinia s ghastly plan Mary succeeds only in convincing them never to let Jerusha find out what they ve done But Jerusha knows a secret is being kept from her and she is determined to uncover it The Law Times ,1880 The London Gazette ,1859

Civilization and the Ancient Egyptians Katanga A. Bongo,2008 Bongo sheds important new light on the most fascinating epoch in human history Ancient Egypt In this heavily researched work he traces the evolution of civilization not to the Middle East as most scholars do but rather the South American tribes whose cultures had greatly influenced what would become the Land of the Pharaohs

Louis MacNeice and the Poetry of the 1930s Richard Danson Brown, 2009 This study investigates Louis MacNeice in two major central strands exploring MacNeice s ambiguous positioning as an Irish poet and the self consciousness in his writing Philip Larkin: Letters Home Philip Larkin, 2018-10-30 Letters Home gives access to the last major archive of Larkin's writing to remain unpublished the letters to members of his family These correspondences help tell the story of how Larkin came to be the writer and the man he was to his father Sydney a conservative anarchist and admirer of Hitler who died relatively early in Larkin's life to his timid depressive mother Eva who by contrast lived long and whose final years were shadowed by dementia and to his sister Kitty the sparse surviving fragment of whose correspondence with her brother gives an enigmatic glimpse of a complex and intimate relationship But it was the years during which he and his sister looked after their mother in particular that shaped the writer we know so well a number of poems written over this time are for her and the mood of pain shadow and despondency that characterises his later verse draws its strength from his experience of the long lonely years of her senility One surprising element in the volume however is the joie de vivre shown in the large number of witty and engaging drawings of himself and Eva as Young Creature and Old Creature with which he enlivens his letters throughout the three decades of her widowhood This important edition meticulously edited by Larkin's biographer James Booth is a key piece of scholarship that completes the portrait of this most cherished of English poets Alice to the Lighthouse Juliet Dusinberre, 2016-07-27 Alice to the Lighthouse is the first and only full length study of the relation between children s literature and writing for adults Lewis Carroll's Alice books created a revolution in writing for and about children which had repercussions not only for subsequent children's writers such as Stevenson Kipling Nesbit Frances Hodgson Burnett and Mark Twain but for Virginia Woolf and her generation Virginia Woolf's celebration of writing as play rather than preaching is the twin of the Post Impressionist art championed by Roger Fry Dusinberre connects books for children in the late nineteenth century with developments in education and psychology all of which feed into the modernism of the early twentieth century

The Register of the Parish of Settrington, 1559-1812 Settrington, England, 1910 W.H. Auden Peter Edgerly Firchow, 2002 This book is not a survey or a guide to all or even most of Auden's poetry though it does follow the general outlines of Auden's development as a poet and thinker BOOK JACKET
