The Burning Bed The True Story Of An Abused Wife:

The Burning Bed Faith McNulty, 1989 Medea's Daughters Jennifer Jones, 2003 Explores the legal cultural and dramatic representations of six accused murderesses to look at how English speaking society responded to and controlled anxiety over female transgressions Encyclopedia of Domestic Violence and Abuse Laura L. Finley, 2013-07-16 This comprehensive two volume work examines domestic abuse in the United States and worldwide providing research personal stories and primary documents that reveal the extent of the problem An estimated 1 300 to 1 800 Americans are murdered by intimate partners each year Far from being a problem that only impacts women domestic violence hurts society as a whole both socially as well as financially with an estimated direct and indirect cost of nearly 6 billion annually in the United States This book provides a timely and thorough reference for educators students scholars and activists seeking to better understand the global issue of domestic abuse The entries document the history of the domestic violence prevention movement provide explanations for abuse identify warning signs of hidden abuse describe types of victims and offenders and supply information on interventions and prevention programs Written by an array of experts in the field the book also integrates the personal stories of survivors and addresses abuse as a global issue by covering topics such as acid attacks and female genital mutilation An American Love Story Rona Jaffe, 2014-11-26 Four smart women and their foolish choice In love with the same man The wrong man Women found him so easy to love Clay Bowen had it all charisma good looks and power in the glamorous world of television Laura the delicate dancer gave up her dazzling career to marry him and have his child Nina excelled at everything except capturing her father's complete attention Bambi his ruthless young assistant thought she was using him And Susan a brilliant writer couldn't bear to think their twenty year bicoastal romance was too good to be true In her most riveting novel since The Best of Everything Rona Jaffe weaves a compelling story of passion and obsession Moving from the glittering capitals of the world and the epicenter of the TV and movie industries to the darkest depths of the human heart she holds her readers captive to the very last page Praise for An American Love Story Jaffe comprehends the ambivalence of women in love like few other contemporary novelists New Woman Compelling a novel of growth despair destruction and realization a novel to read and have a daughter read UPI Savvy and sharp St Petersburg Times Thoughtful provocative San Antonio Express News Intercourse Andrea Dworkin, 2008-08-01 Andrea Dworkin once called Feminism's Malcolm X has been worshipped reviled criticized and analyzed but never ignored The power of her writing the passion of her ideals and the ferocity of her intellect have spurred the arguments and activism of two generations of feminists Now the book that she's best known for in which she provoked the argument that ultimately split apart the feminist movement is being reissued for the young women and men of the twenty first century Intercourse enraged as many readers as it inspired when it was first published in 1987 In it Dworkin argues that in a male supremacist society sex between men and women constitutes a central part of women's subordination to men This argument was quickly and falsely simplified to all sex is rape in the public arena adding fire to Dworkin's already radical persona In her introduction to this twentieth anniversary edition of Intercourse Ariel Levy the author of Female Chauvinist Pigs discusses the circumstances of Dworkin's untimely death in the spring of 2005 and the enormous impact of her life and work Dworkin's argument she points out is the stickiest question of feminism Can a woman fight the power when he shares her bed For Dear Life Carol

Jacobsen,2019-02-11 For Dear Life chronicles feminist and artist Carol Jacobsen's deep commitment to the causes of justice and human rights and focuses a critical lens on an American criminal legal regime that imparts racist gendered and classist modes of punishment to women lawbreakers Jacobsen's tireless work with and for women prisoners is charted in this rich assemblage of images and texts that reveal the collective strategies she and the prisoners have employed to receive justice The book gives evidence that women's lawbreaking is often an effort to survive gender based violence The faces letters and testimonies of dozens of incarcerated women with whom Jacobsen has worked present a visceral yet politicized chorus of voices against the criminal legal systems that fail us all Their voices are joined by those of leading feminist scholars in essays that illuminate the arduous methods of dissent that Jacobsen and the others have employed to win freedom for more than a dozen women sentenced to life imprisonment and to free many more from torturous prison conditions The book is a document to Jacobsen's love and lifelong commitment to creating feminist justice and freedom and to the efficacy of her artistic legal and extralegal political actions on behalf of women Women in Popular Culture Laura L. Finley,2023-03-24

Including more than 300 alphabetically listed entries this 2 volume set presents a timely and detailed overview of some of the most significant contributions women have made to American popular culture from the silent film era to the present day The lives and accomplishments of women from various aspects of popular culture are examined including women from film television music fashion and literature In addition to profiles the encyclopedia also includes chapters that provide a historical review of gender domesticity marriage work and inclusivity in popular culture as well as a chronology of key achievements This reference work is an ideal introduction to the roles women have played both in the spotlight and behind it throughout the history of popular culture in America From the stars of Hollywood's Golden Age to the chart toppers of the 2020s author Laura L. Finley documents how attitudes towards these icons have evolved and how their influence has shifted throughout time The entries and essays also address such timely topics as feminism the MeToo movement and the gender pay gap

Intimate Violence and Abuse in Families Richard J. Gelles,2017 This Fourth Edition of Intimate Violence and Abuse in Families updates a best selling core text in the field of intimate violence and child maltreatment New features include a Global Perspectives call out box for each of the chapters that explore an aspect of research policy and practice globally or in another nation and a separate chapter that examines forms of intimate partner violence other than male to female Bidirectional intimate partner violence and female to male violence remain contentious topics in the field of intimate partner violence and rarely receive extensive coverage in books or texts Chapter 7 includes a new examination of brain and behavior research and theory as it can be applied to intimate partner violence Further Chapter 8 adds a much expanded examination of the most important federal policies pertaining to child welfare and child maltreatment The inclusion of all forms of relationship and intimate violence continues to be a distinctive feature of the book which is a must have for both undergraduate and graduate students studying social work family studies criminology nursing sociology and or psychology

A Battered Woman Went to Harvard Suzanne Duque,2012-08-03 How does one survive in a home that s become a torture chamber where your daily ration is fear and trauma One does not have to subject themselves to dehumanization but most of the time putting a stop to it is not so simple an act Until one can safely separate themselves or escapes how does one cope with such an unfathomable trauma riddled circumstance This is a memoir of catharsis from dehumanization to the reclamation of the dignity and integrity It is a disclosure a confession and reflection if you will by a mother of five who for thirty years lived with her own terrorist and was subjected to a cycle of physical intellectual spiritual and emotional abuse and violence Through religion and spirituality she manages to cope and eventually find the path to deliverance and peace of mind and heart This disclosure is a case study which puts a face a mind and heart to the traumatic subjection to intimate partner violence

When She Was Bad Patricia Pearson,2021-01-05 Winner of the Arthur Ellis Award for Best Non Fiction Crime Book From award winning author and journalist Patricia Pearson When She Was Bad questions our understanding of violent women Why do some women murder their children Why do others team up with men in ghoulish killing sprees What motivates the female serial killer When She Was Bad explores the enigmatic heart of female darkness drawing into focus such fascinating characters as Dorothea Puente who murdered several elderly tenants in her boarding house in Sacramento Mary Beth Tinning who killed eight of her children in upstate New York Karla Homolka who joined forces with Paul Bernardo to abduct rape and murder school girls in southern Ontario and Karla Faye Tucker the born again Christian who was executed in Texas for having killed two people with a pickax In this provocative book Patricia Pearson explores women s innate capacity for aggression an idea we remain deeply uncomfortable with Fighting Women Victoria Katherine Burbank,2024-06-04 Fighting is common among contemporary Aboriginal women in Mangrove Australia Women fight with men and with other women often with the other woman Victoria Burbank s depiction of these women offers a powerful new perspective that can be applied to domestic violence in Western settings Noting that Aboriginal women not only talk without shame about their angry emotions but also express them in acts of aggression and defense Burbank emphasizes the positive social and cultural implications of women s refusal to be victims She explores questions of hierarchy and the expression of emotions as well as women s roles in domestic violence Human aggression can be experienced and expressed in different ways she says and is not necessarily always wrong Fighting Women is relevant to discussions of aggression and gender relations in addition to debates on the victimization of women and children everywhere This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994 The Social Dynamics of Family Violence Angela J. Hattery,Earl Smith,2019-09-10 The Social Dynamics of Family Violence explores family violence throughout the life course from child abuse and neglect to intimate partner violence and elder abuse Paying special attention to the social character and institutional causes of family violence Hattery and Smith ask students to consider how social inequality especially gender inequality contributes to tensions and explosive tendencies in family settings Students learn about individual preventative measures and are also invited to question the justice of our current social structure with implications for social policy and reorganization Hattery and Smith also examine violence against women globally and relate this to violence in the United States Unique coverage of same sex and multicultural couples as well as of theory and methods make this text an essential element of any course considering the sociology of family violence In the Arms of Satan Ariel O'Suilleabhain,2012-01-30 I GREW UP in Japan with different oriental influences and even had a Filipino child caregiver I am not in any way ethnically prejudiced against any foreign nation I love them all as I love myself But I hate now and will always hate evil and the unfair balance in whatever form it comes The Canadian Family in Crisis Conway, John F.,1997 The Canadian Family in Crisis is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the direction family life is taking in the twenty first century The author looks at the changing nature of the family considers the implications of divorce the impact of social changes on men women and children and suggests how these issues might be better addressed through family policy Domestic Violence in Hollywood Film Diane L. Shoos,2017-12-19 This is the first book to critically examine Hollywood films that focus on male partner violence against women These films include Gaslight Sleeping with the Enemy What s Love Got to Do with It Dolores Claiborne Enough and Safe Haven Shaped by the contexts of postfeminism domestic abuse post awareness and familiar genre conventions these films engage in ideological gaslighting that reaffirms our preconceived ideas about men as abusers women as victims and the racial and class politics of domestic violence While the films purport to condemn abuse and empower abused women this study proposes that they tacitly reinforce the very attitudes that we believe we no longer tolerate Shoos argues that films like these limit not only popular understanding but also social and institutional interventions Children of Coercive Control Evan Stark,2023 In accessible prose illustrated by dramatic cases from his forensic practice Evan Stark shows that the vast majority of children killed or seriously injured in families are victims of coercive control by their father Coercive control has been adapted by many countries and US States as the overarching definition of violence against women Children are secondary victims of this process Stark describes why he would abolish the child welfare system and replace the ameliorative approach to child abuse and child protection with criminal laws against coercive control and support independence for women and children Domestic Violence and Abuse Laura L. Finley,2020-01-07 This one stop resource for students activists educators and advocates provides a thorough and accessible overview of the many dimensions of domestic violence and abuse including risk factors consequences and resources Appropriate for readers at the high school level and above the volume focuses on the scope extent and characteristics of domestic violence by studying the issue from a variety of perspectives and vantage points including the voices of domestic violence survivors and the activists and advocates working on their behalf to end one of the world s worst human rights problems The volume also includes illuminating chapters devoted to contextual historical overview examinations of key issues and trends in the struggle to end domestic violence a chronology of key events relevant data and primary documents a glossary of terms and recommended online and print resources for further study and analysis

Marriage and Violence Frances E. Dolan,2010-11-24 Marriage is often described as a melding of two people into one But what or who must be lost fragmented or buried in that process We have inherited a model of marriage so flawed Frances E Dolan contends that its logical consequence is conflict Dolan ranges over sixteenth and seventeenth century Puritan advice literature sensational accounts of true crime and late twentieth century marriage manuals and films about battered women who kill their abusers She reads the inevitable Taming of the Shrew against William Byrd s diary of life on his Virginia plantation Noel Coward s Private Lives and Barbara Ehrenreich s assessment in Nickel and Dimed of the relationship between marriage and housework She traces the connections between Phillippa Gregory s best selling novel The Other Boleyn Girl and documents about Anne Boleyn s fatal marriage and her daughter Elizabeth I s much debated virginity By contrasting depictions of marriage in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and our own time she shows that the early modern apprehension of marriage as an economy of scarcity continues to haunt the present in the form of a conceptual structure that can accommodate only one fully developed person When two fractious individuals assert their conflicting wills resolution can be achieved only when one spouse absorbs subordinates or eliminates the other In an era when marriage remains hotly contested this book draws our attention to one of the histories that bears on the present a history in which marriage promises both intimate connection and fierce conflict both companionship and competition

Coercive Control Evan Stark,2023 Coercive Control a major update of the seminal first edition contains painful first hand accounts of psychological sexual financial and physical abuse of women Stark identifies the elements of coercive control and the harms they pose to women and their rights New laws policies and approaches are proposed for supporting perpetrators and victims The overall effect is uplifting because the numerous real life stories emphasize survival and endurance

The Social Dynamics of Family Violence Angela Hattery,2018-05-15 She died in September by the ugliest means weighing an unthinkable 18 pounds half what a 4 year old ought to She withered in poverty in a home in Brooklyn where the authorities said she had been drugged and often bound to a toddler bed by her mother having realized a bare thimble s worth of living Marchella weighed 1 pound 4 ounces when she was born prematurely on April 3 2006 A relative recalls thinking she was about the size of a one liter Pepsi bottle A twin sister born first died Her name was Miracle N R KLEINFELD AND MOSI

SECRET A Bleak Life Cut Short at 4 Harrowing from the Start New York Times May 8 2011 This chapter will set the stage for an in depth theoretically framed discussion of various types of family violence including elder abuse intimate partner violence and child abuse In addition to defining key terms we will also discuss the concept of family violence itself which is perhaps surprisingly contested compare and contrast scholarly approaches to thinking about family violence and offer a reconceptualized model for considering family violence Objectives Provide the latest empirical data on a variety of types of family violence Define critical concepts and recognize key issues relevant to the study of family violence Identify and introduce the theoretical paradigms that have been employed to analyze and understand family violence 1 the family violence approach 2 the feminist approach and 3 the race class and gender RCG approach Illuminate the ways in which social structures and institutions such as the economy cultural norms religious ideologies and the military shape violence in families Illuminate the ways in which social statuses race social class gender age and sexuality shape patterns of violence in families Provide an honest discussion of the issues that families living with violence face
