Every attorney who is considering practice in a law firm and even those who have already made that choice will benefit from Mr Koster's cogent observations which are based on his 35 years of practice in a variety of legal settings. He manages to convey information in a unique manner that engages the reader illuminates aspects of the private practice of law that may come as a surprise and forces an introspective examination of an attorney's goals and compatibility with law firm life. Hall, David S. Clark, James W. Ely, Joel B. Grossman, N. E. H. Hull, 2002-05-02 A landmark in legal publishing. The Oxford Companion to the Supreme Court is a now classic text many of whose entries are regularly cited by scholars as the definitive statement on any particular subject. In the tradition of that work editor in chief Kermit L. Hall offers up The Oxford Companion to American Law a one volume A-Z encyclopedia that covers topics ranging from aging and the law wiretapping and electronic eavesdropping the Salem Witch Trials and Plessy vs Ferguson. The Companion takes as its starting point the insight that law is embedded in society and that to understand American law one must necessarily ask questions about the relationship between it and the social order now and in the past. The volume assumes that American law in all its richness and complexity cannot be understood in isolation as simply the business of the Supreme Court or as a list of common law doctrines. Hence the volume takes seriously issues involving law's role in structuring decisions about governance the significance of state and local law and legal institutions and the place of American law in a comparative international perspective. Nearly 500 entries are included written by over 300 expert contributors. Intended for the working lawyer or judge the high school student working on a term paper or the general adult reader interested in the topic the Companion is the authoritative reference work on the subject of American law The Pacific Reporter, 1911 The Central Law Journal, 1909 Vols 65-96 include Central law journal's international law list Biographical Directory of the American
