Being Neighbours Catharine Anne Wilson, 2022-10-28 Throughout history farm families have shared work and equipment with their neighbours to complete labour intensive time sensitive and time consuming tasks They benefitted materially and socially from these voluntary flexible loosely structured networks of reciprocal assistance making neighbourliness a vital but overlooked aspect of agricultural change Being Neighbours takes us into the heart of neighbourhood the set of people near and surrounding the family through an examination of work bees in southern Ontario from 1830 to 1960 The bee was a special event where people gathered to work on a neighbour's farm like bees in a hive for a wide variety of purposes including barn raising logging threshing quilting turkey plucking and apple paring Drawing on the diaries of over one hundred men and women Catharine Wilson takes readers into families daily lives the intricacies of their labour exchange and their workways feasts and hospitality Through the prism of the bee and a close reading of the diaries she uncovers the subtle social politics of mutual dependency the expectations neighbours had of each other and their ways of managing conflict and crisis This book adds to the literature on cooperative work that focuses on evaluating its economic efficiency and complicates histories of capitalism that place communal values at odds with market orientation Beautifully written engaging and richly detailed and illustrated Being Neighbours reveals the visceral textures of rural life

APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service, American West Karen R. Jones, 2009-03-21 The American West used to be a story of gunfights glory wagon trails and linear progress Historians such as Frederick Jackson Turner and Hollywood movies such as Stagecoach 1939 and Shane 1953 cast the trans Mississippi region as a frontier of epic proportions where savagery met civilization and boys became men During the late 1980s this old way of seeing the West came under heavy fire Scholars such as Patricia Nelson Limerick and Richard White forged a fresh story of the region a new vision of the West based around the conquest of peoples and landscapes This book explores the bipolar world of Turner's Old West and Limerick's New West and reveals the values and ambiguities associated with both historical traditions Sections on Lewis and Clark the frontier and the cowboy sit alongside work on Indian genocide and women's trail diaries Images of the region as seen through the arcade Western Hollywood film and Disney theme parks confirm the West as a symbolic and contested landscape Tapping into popular fascination with the Cowboy Hollywood movies the Indian Wars and Custer's Last Stand the authors show the reader how to deconstruct the imagery and reality surrounding Western history Key Features Uses popular subjects the Cowboy Hollywood westerns the Indian Wars and Custer's Last Stand to enliven the text Includes 13 b/w illustrations Interdisciplinary approach covers film literature art and historical artefacts      Consent of the People David Kemp, 2022-10-18 Consent of the People Human Dignity through Freedom and Equality 1966 2022 explores how Australia's founding Enlightenment ideals were shaped into a unique national liberalism embodied in liberal democratic institutions political parties and shared values Despite intense partisan loyalties conservative and radical resistance and a politics of unequal power and influence inequality was addressed and personal freedom strengthened This final book in the landmark five volume Australian Liberalism series examines the place of liberal ideas in governments from Harold Holt to Scott Morrison It shows how reform urgency led to the nation's greatest political crisis in 1975 how prime ministers Fraser and Hawke struggled to manage an economy dominated by powerful union business and global interests how during twenty four crucial years Hawke Keating and Howard led one of the nation's greatest reform eras and how social reform continued despite the leadership instability of the post Howard era David Kemp assesses political parties as the instruments of reform and the difficulties of achieving reform in the public interest highlighting the dangers of factionalism and loss of purpose He examines how an international revival of liberal thought and rising levels of education revolutionised Australian society and politics creating a moral and moralistic ruling class In a remarkable half century Australians strove with growing success to achieve their dreams      East Timor, Australia and Regional Order James Cotton, 2004-05-20 This book explains the exceptional nature of the East Timor intervention of 1999 and deals with the background to the trusteeship role of the UN in building the new polity All of these developments had an important impact on regional order not least testing the ASEAN norm of non interference Australian complicity in the Indonesian occupation of East Timor was a major factor in the persistence of Indonesian rule in the territory which was maintained for twenty five years despite international censure and which required an unremitting campaign against the independence movement This work reviews the reasons for that history of complicity and explains the extraordinary change of policy that led ultimately to the occupation of the territory by the Australian led INTERFET coalition      Opposition Vanishing Ashley Lavelle, 2017-09-02 This book questions the common understanding of party political behaviour explaining some of the sharp differences in political behaviour through a focused case study drawing systematically on primary and archival research of the Australian Labor Party's political and policy directions during select periods in which it was out of office at the federal level from 1967 72 1975 83 and 1996 2001 Why is it that some Oppositions contest elections with an extensive array of detailed policies many of which contrast with the approach of the government at the time while others can be widely criticised as policy lazy and opportunistic seemingly capitulating to the government of the day Why do some Oppositions lurch to the right while others veer leftward Each of these periods was in its own way crucial in the party's history and each raises important questions about Opposition behaviour The book examines the factors that shaped the overall direction in which the party moved during its time in Opposition including whether it was oriented towards emphasising programmes traditionally associated with social democrats such as pensions unemployment support and investment in public health education infrastructure and publicly owned enterprises as well as policies aimed at reducing the exploitation of workers In each period of Opposition examined an argument is made as to why Labor moved in a particular direction and how this period compared to the other periods surveyed The book rounds off with analysis of the generalisability of the conclusions drawn how relevant are they for understanding the behaviour of other parties elsewhere in the world Where are social democratic parties such as the ALP heading Is Opposition an institution in decline in the Western world Bondi in the Sinai Rodney Goultman, 1996 This book reveals the political atmospherics behind Australia's involvement in the American inspired Multi national and Observers Force in the Sinai A child of the Egypt Israel peace pact of 1979 the Force's lack of United Nations approval proved a formidable barrier for a skeptical Australian audience Australia's inclusion in the NFO would not have been possible without the singular efforts of her staunchly anti Communist Prime Minister Malcolm Fraser Background factors examined include resentment of the American Alliance changing attitudes to the Middle East peace process and the emotional fall out of the Vietnam War This book deals with previously unpublished contemporary material in a holistic political analysis 'Order, Order!' Stephen Wilks, 2023-05-30 Order Order A Biographical Dictionary of Speakers Deputy Speakers and Clerks of the Australian House of Representatives shines a first ever historical light on the remarkable men and women who have served in these national offices since Federation The Speakers include Frederick Holder whose campaign to embed a Westminster style Speakership died with him when he collapsed dramatically in the parliament the much loved Joan Child Australia's first female Speaker whose struggles as a widow with five children fostered her commitment to social justice and made her in the words of another Speaker Anna Burke pretty fierce and Ian Sinclair a warhorse of a parliamentarian who seemed to prove the poacher turned gamekeeper principle The Deputy Speakers a particularly eclectic assortment include the strange and bleakly serious James Fowler who once hopefully mailed a film synopsis to the American director Cecil B DeMille and who ended his days warning of the perils of democracy Amongst the Clerks are Frank Green who at the height of the Cold War indiscreetly befriended members of the Communist Party and the popular Jack Pettifer a true child of parliament who grew up in an apartment in the building This book includes analysis of what sorts of individuals typically filled these vital parliamentary positions and the appearance of an Australian model of the Speakership based on pragmatic compromise All three offices are typically more than just creatures of political parties something that Australians should be prepared to defend against the remorseless encroachment of political partisanship Narrative of Denial Peter Job, 2021-06-01 The

Indonesian invasion of East Timor in 1975 led to a prolonged conflict severe human rights abuses and a large loss of life From 1975 to 1983 the Indonesian military s campaign of encirclement and annihilation destroyed rural food resources creating the famine that took most of the lives lost during the occupation The Australian governments of Gough Whitlam and Malcolm Fraser presented themselves as advocates for human rights and the international rule of law while viewing relations with Indonesia as key to their foreign policy objectives These positions came into conflict due to the Indonesian invasion of East Timor Based upon an extensive study of Australian foreign affairs archives as well as interviews A Narrative of Denial demonstrates how the Australian government responded to the conflict by propagating a version of events that denied the reality of the catastrophe occurring in East Timor It worked to protect the Suharto regime internationally thereby allowing it to continue its repression relatively unhindered This remarkable story will unsettle existing perceptions of how Australia operates in world affairs     Lionel Murphy Jenny Hocking,2000-08-30 Now available in paperback this new version includes an epilogue by the author     Power Plays Laurie Oakes,2011-02-01 Laurie Oakes is the most influential political journalist in Australia if he says something has happened the rest of the media especially the Canberra Press Gallery believe him and report it as news He is respected by both political insiders and the wider public He has worked in Canberra as a political reporter for 39 years and reported on 19 federal elections He regularly finds the big story way ahead of everyone else Currently the national political editor for the Nine Network he is the man who interviews all the big names From 1987 to December 2007 he wrote a weekly column for the Bulletin and since its demise he has been writing a column for the Saturday Daily Telegraph in Sydney and the Herald Sun in Melbourne POWER PLAYS is a selection of 150 of the very best and most timeless of Laurie Oakes columns
