The Candy Horse Dorothy J. Hamilton, 2002-05 The American philosopher Charles Hartshorne once remarked The great adventures of my life have been books The adventures of ideas last for a lifetime even for someone who enjoys exceptional longevity as did Hartshorne who lived to the age of 103 These essays express some of the adventures I've enjoyed with books ideas and the thinkers behind them The division into four sections symbolized by the four elements Air Earth Water and Fire is perhaps more intuitive than cerebral but there is method nonetheless In Part One the clear air of reason provides room and ground for adventurous flights of imagination and especially in the Goethe piece a cleansing or better a transformation of the windows of perception Part Two is more down to earth and invites participation in several practical adventures or techniques for cultivating mental and spiritual faculties and growing in consciousness Water is one of our richest metaphors that finds protean expression in the path of spirituality explored in Part Three as well as in all great literature and in the other arts Part Four concerns the liberating and refining fire of philosophy namely the adventurous frontier of process philosophy as first conceived and clearly formulated by Alfred North Whitehead further developed by Charles Hartshorne and now carried robustly forward by the worldwide community of process thinkers and scholars Graham Salisbury David Macinnis Gill, 2005-06-22 In the first chapter of Graham Salisbury Island Boy David Gill chronicles the labyrinthine path of Salisbury's life and career from barefoot island boy to college dropout from pop musician to schoolteacher and from real estate manager to author of young adult fiction In subsequent chapters Gill reviews critical responses to Salisbury's work and discusses the author's plots style literary themes use of archetypes and coming of age stories that dominate his work In the concluding chapter fans are treated to a peek at some of Salisbury's future projects Jacket Christian Register and Boston Observer..., 1916 North-western Christian Advocate, 1902 Northwestern Christian Advocate, 1902 Boys' Life, 1951-04 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting American Illustrated Magazine, 1923 I Stand In The Light I've Cast Stephine Garner, 2021-07-22 Denise has always been the apple of her father's eye She keeps her head down she works hard and she studies harder She is taught at an early age that you perpetually give your best Denise is a young lady who lives an ordinary dull life One day she meets a guy who blows her away Over time she falls in love Ever since then her life becomes chaos His name is Winston However everyone knows him as J R He has been in the street life since his preteens with no plans of getting out J R has a son whom he doesn't know about until the child is two years old When he does find out he thinks it is best to hide his son from Denise He falls in love with her from the first time he lays eyes on her Denise is eventually kidnapped The only thing that gives her some piece is knowing he is looking for her Denise is very reserved very strong willed and very independent These very well may be the only things that will keep her alive throughout this endeavor Winston needs them to see he is not a child but a grown man at fourteen He must go in hard on every job He must be better

He must be smarter and more importantly he must be faster than the best in the set to be taken seriously Things in his crew start to fall apart As an alternative to trying to keep it together he chooses for once to put himself first and to search for the woman who has given him purpose His soul mate is taken on his watch and he will set out to take her back Everyone who is involved will pay with their lives
