Marinetti,2007-04-07 The Futurist movement was founded and promoted by Filippo Tommaso Marinetti beginning in 1909 with the First Futurist Manifesto in which he inveighed against the complacency of cultural necrophiliacs and sought to annihilate the values of the past writing that there is no longer any beauty except the struggle Any work of art that lacks a sense of aggression can never be a masterpiece In the years that followed up until his death in 1944 Marinetti through both his polemical writings and his political activities sought to transform society in all its aspects As

Gunter Berghaus writes in his introduction Futurism sought to bridge the gap between art and life and to bring aesthetic innovation into the real world Life was to be changed through art and art was to become a form of life This volume includes more than seventy of Marinetti's most important writings many of them translated into English for the first time offering the reader a representative and still startling selection of texts concerned with Futurist art literature politics and philosophy

Watts, Franz Andres Morrissey, 2019-01-31

The relationship between language and music has much in common rhythm structure sound metaphor Exploring the phenomena of song and performance this book presents a sociolinguistic model for analysing them Based on ethnomusicologist John Blacking's contention that any song performed communally is a folk song regardless of its generic origins it argues that folk song to a far greater extent than other song genres displays communal or inclusive types of performance The defining feature of folk song as a multi-modal instantiation of music and language is its participatory nature making it ideal for sociolinguistic analysis In this sense a folk song is the product of specific types of developing social interaction whose major purpose is the construction of a temporally and locally based community Through repeated instantiations this can lead to disparate communities of practice which over time develop sociocultural registers and a communal stance towards aspects of meaningful events in everyday lives that become typical of a discourse community
