Slavery Milton Meltzer,1971      The Atlantic Slave Trade Jeremy Black,2022-12-30 Originally published as a collection in 2006 the essays in this volume discuss the reasons for the end of the slave trade and the institution of slavery itself They examine the rise of the abolitionist movement in different countries and how the move towards abolition was swifter in some areas than others Attention is also paid to the economic consequences of abolition popular attitudes to abolition and the role of the Church The volume also has an introduction by the editor commenting on the contribution each essay makes

Slaves, Women & Homosexuals William J. Webb,2009-08-20 This volume by William J Webb explores the hermeneutical maze that accompanies any treatment of these three controversial topics and takes a new step toward breaking down walls within the evangelical community related to them      The Sociological Predicament Alexander Thomas,2025-04-17 A sociological phenomenon afflicts sociology itself academics think of themselves as the vanguard of the working class despite the fact that they are not working class as the noble willingness to side with the oppressed contrasts scholars reliance on authority to bolster their politics While there are no simple solutions to this contradiction a necessary beginning is for sociologists and other academics to acknowledge the reality of their own class privilege as members of the professional managerial class The Sociological Predicament is then a conscious and deliberate work of professional self loathing that traces the evolution of ideologies found in academia from the mid twentieth century to today which demonstrates the ways in which biases around class have given short shrift to the concerns of working class Americans in deindustrialized cities and towns that have ultimately turned away from and then against them Intellectuals have not historically been on the side of the oppressed but have been instrumental in developing ideologies that sustain the status quo and this book crucially asks whether academics presence on the left ultimately serves conservative ends      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1973      A Bibliography on the Black American United States. Air Force. Air Forces in Europe. Libraries,1972      Focus on Minorities Fort Bragg (N.C.). Library,1973

Applicative Justice Naomi Zack,2016-03-04 Naomi Zack pioneers a new theory of justice starting from a correction of current injustices While the present justice paradigm in political philosophy and related fields begins from John Rawls s 1970 Theory of Justice Zack insists that what people in reality care about is not justice as an ideal but injustice as a correctable ill For a way to describe real injustice and the society in which it occurs Zack resurrect Arthur Bentley s key insight that government and law or political life is a constant process of contending interest groups throughout society Bentley s main idea allows for a resolution of the contradiction between formal legal equality for U S minorities and post civil rights practical inequality Just law and unjust practice co exist as a fact of political life The correction of injustice in reality requires applicative justice in a comparison between those who are treated unjustly with those who are treated justly and the design of effective measures to equalize such treatment Zack s theory of applicative justice offers a revolutionary reorientation of society's pursuit of justice seeking to undo injustice in a practical and fully achievable way      The Dynamics of Change in a Slave Society Mavis Christine Campbell, 1975 Studies the institutional evolution of the island analyzes in depth and for the first time the postemancipation behavior of the mulattos the role of newspapers in expressing public opinion and in debating caste interests and delineates the relationship between politics and socioeconomic interests      The Lion and the Unicorn, 1987 A critical journal of children's literature      The Problem of Slavery in Western Culture David Brion Davis, 1988-10-20 Winner of several national awards including the 1967 Pulitzer Prize this classic study by David Brion Davis has given new direction to the historical and sociological research of society's attitude towards slavery Davis depicts the various ways different societies have responded to the intrinsic contradictions of slavery from antiquity to the early 1770s in order to establish the uniqueness of the abolitionists' response While slavery has always caused considerable social and psychological tension Western culture has associated it with certain religious and philosophical doctrines that gave it the highest sanction The contradiction of slavery grew more profound when it became closely linked with American colonization which had as its basic foundation the desire and opportunity to create a more perfect society Davis provides a comparative analysis of slave systems in the Old World a discussion of the early attitudes towards American slavery and a detailed exploration of the early protests against Negro bondage as well as the religious literary and philosophical developments that contributed to both sides in the controversies of the late eighteenth century This exemplary introduction to the history of slavery in Western culture presents the traditions in thought and value that gave rise to the attitudes of both abolitionists and defenders of slavery in the late eighteenth century as well as the nineteenth century      City and Country Alexander R. Thomas, Gregory M. Fulkerson, 2021-06-17 City and Country: The Historical Evolution of Urban Rural Systems begins with a simple assumption every human requires on average two thousand calories per day to stay alive Tracing the ramifications of this insight leads to the caloric well the caloric demand at one point in the environment As population increases the depth of the caloric well reflects this increased demand and requires a population to go further afield for resources a condition called urban dependency City and Country traces the structural ramifications of these dynamics as the population increased from the Paleolithic to today We can understand urban dependency as the product of the caloric demands a population puts on a given environment and when those demands outstrip the carry capacity of the environment a caloric well develops that forces a community to look beyond its immediate area for resources As the well deepens the horizon from which resources are gathered is pushed further afield often resulting in conflict with neighboring groups Prior to settled villages increases in population resulted in cultural technological innovations that allowed for greater use of existing resources the broad spectrum revolution circa 20 thousand years ago the birth of agricultural villages 11 thousand years ago and hierarchically organized systems of multiple settlements working together to produce enough food during the Ubaid period in Mesopotamia seven thousand years ago the first urban rural systems As cities developed increasing population resulted in an ever deepening morass of urban dependency that required expansion of urban rural systems These urban rural dynamics today serve as an underlying logic upon which modern capitalism is built The culmination of two decades of research into the nature of urban rural dynamics City and Country argues that at the heart of the logic of capitalism is an even deeper logic urbanization is based on urban dependency critical role of women in the history of slavery the significance of manumission in the formation of Christian doctrine and the devastating toll of genocide and undaunted revolt of slaves in Jamaican slave society Concluding with an investigation of contemporary slavery and other forms of servitude this book urges readers to reckon with the brutal legacies of the past and its alarming modern day persistence Enslavement Past and Present deepens our understanding of the broad spectrum of evil and human bondage throughout history an understanding that is essential for contemporary struggles to build a more inclusive society for all     Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Karl Brown, Helen E.
