Thornton, 2005 In New World Empire William H. Thornton offers an alternative road map for America's relations with the Islamic world He cogently argues that neoglobalist policies adopted after 9/11 have pushed much of the Muslim world into the enemy camp Worse still the White House has redefined America in stark contrast to this phantom adversary The resulting new world empire fails to recognize that jihadist militants have their worst enemy in civil Islam Thornton sets forth a powerful case for salvaging this vital link between America and the world it has lost Visit our website for sample chapters

Determining Boundaries in a Conflicted World Suzanne Lalonde, 2002 In 1992 when Yugoslavia was on the point of disintegration the Badinter Commission recommended that the issue of its boundaries be resolved according to the principle of uti possidetis the internal boundaries dividing the former Yugoslav Republics should automatically become the international boundaries of the new states Elated by what seemed a clear and workable solution to an impossible problem the international community proceeded to impose the binding principle of uti possidetis on all the parties involved Relying on the Badinter interpretation of uti possidetis five experts in international law have assured the Quebec government that in the event of separation from Canada Quebec could assume legal entitlement under international law of its existing boundaries In
