Territorium Artis:

Territorium Artis Pontus Hultén, 1992 Pontus Hultén founder director of the German Kunst und Ausstellungshalle marks out a broad field for Modernism in an unconventional way in this volume and calls it Territorium Artis He launches a broad span from Rodin to contemporary artists without putting the personality of the artist in the centre or dealing with trends styles and developments Instead he directs his attention towards pioneering individual works that were violently rejected by critics at the time they originated as not having anything to do with art but later turned out to have been the works that had the greatest intellectual and spiritual explosive force Art That Moves Roger Horrocks, 2013-11-01 A companion to the author's bestselling biography of Len Lye this compelling volume shifts the focus from Lye's life to his art practice and innovative aesthetic theories about the art of motion which continue to be relevant today Going beyond a general introduction to Lye and his artistic importance this in depth book offers a detailed study of his aesthetics of motion analyzing how these theories were embodied in his sculptures and films Artspace, 1992 Women Artists in the 20th and 21st Century Ilka Becker, 2001 Taschen's inventive layout is effective in presenting the provocative works words and biographies of the nearly 100 women artists gathered here Grosenick a freelance art historian in Germany has selected women artists working in Germany the US South Africa Japan Poland France Scandinavia and Spain among other countries The entry for each artist is six pages with much of the space devoted to good quality color photos of her work c Book News Inc

Artintact, 1996 Interdisciplinary Exhibitions and the Production of Knowledge Henriette Pleiger, 2024-11-22 How can exhibitions not only stage existing knowledge but also raise questions that lead to new research This question has become ever more relevant due to the museum sector's growing interest in the development of thematic exhibitions that combine narratives and objects from art science cultural history and everyday life Using theories from interdisciplinarity studies Henriette Pleiger identifies different ways of producing knowledge during the exhibition making process as well as the mechanisms that are necessary for an exhibition to be considered interdisciplinary The development of such exhibitions can be understood as collaborative research processes Edward Ruscha Lisa Turvey, 2014-01-01 An immense contribution to scholarship on Ed Ruscha and his pioneering artistic practice offering thorough documentation of his works on paper This highly anticipated book the first in a series of three comprehensively chronicles the first two decades of Ed Ruscha's 1937 work on paper which comprises the largest component of his production of original works Over 1 000 works on paper are documented all created between 1956 and 1976 and they encompass a wide range of formats materials themes and styles Included are collages ephemeral sketches preparatory studies for paintings oil on paper works and drawings executed in a variety of inventive materials including gunpowder and organic substances Ruscha came to prominence in the early 1960s as part of the Pop art movement although his work equally engages the legacies of Dada Surrealism and Abstract Expressionism as well as the Conceptual art that emerged later in the decade He has long enjoyed international standing and admiration and his work is widely known Despite this recognition this volume contains hundreds of works that have infrequently or never been exhibited or published Each work is catalogued with a color reproduction collection details full chronological provenance exhibition history and bibliographic references Essays by Lisa Turvey and Harry Cooper complete this extraordinary survey which expands and enriches our understanding of Ruscha's pioneering exploration of the written word as a subject for visual art and his witty assessment of the iconography of Los Angeles both real and imagined
