Terrorism Tort Law And Insurance A Comparative Survey:

Terrorism, Tort Law and Insurance Bernhard A. Koch, 2003-12-22 The tragic events of September 11th 2001 have stirred international debate on how to cope with losses that terrorist acts inflict upon individuals and businesses While tort law offers several possible responses to this question insurers funds and ad hoc legislation often step in as well This volume brings together renowned tort law experts from Austria France Germany Israel Italy South Africa Spain Sweden Switzerland the United Kingdom and the United States who examine compensation for victims of terrorism in their respective jurisdictions Contributions from the U S also address procedural problems of mass tort litigation and present the September 11th Victim Compensation Fund Further contributions include a survey of liability insurance issues as well as an economic analysis of possible solutions The book is concluded by a comparative analysis and an assessment of legal policy issues

Assisting Victims of Terrorism Rianne Letschert, Ines Staiger, Antony Pemberton, 2009-12-04 The fight against terrorism is receiving increased awareness due to recent world wide large scale terrorist acts and only since then has some attention been directed specifically to victims of terrorism Existing legal instruments of international bodies like the European Union the Council of Europe and the United Nations concerning victims of terrorism are relatively abstract or include victims of terrorism under the broader heading of victims of crime in general In addition policies and legislation relating to victims of crime or victims of terrorism vary widely on the domestic level Against this background the European Union commissioned a project that should aim to develop more extensive standards for the aid and assistance of victims of terrorism at the European level This study provides the basis from which more extensive standards could be derived The study focuses particularly on developing standards in the field of continuing assistance access to justice administration of justice and compensation to victims of terrorism A novel feature of the approach is that also the possible utility of restorative justice approaches is examined An important question to address was whether there is a real need to adopt specific standards for victims of terrorism thereby implying that their needs might differ from victims of ordinary crime
