Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Medieval Art Leslie D. Ross, 1996-11-14

Designed as a quick reference source to the topics symbols themes and stories most frequently found in early Christian western medieval and Byzantine art this work describes topics that include names and narratives drawn from the Bible and apocrypha the lives of saints and numerous other textual sources Authors whose works were frequently illustrated or who were influential on the visual arts are treated as are selected art historical terms and events of significance for the arts Cross references alert readers to alternate titles and related topics and the majority of entries cite a pictorial example These are keyed to standard texts for easy viewing access The dictionary begins with Aaron and ends with Zoomorphic Decoration This dictionary focuses on the medieval period and the distinctive ways in which the subjects and symbols referenced in the work evolved and developed during the Middle Ages resulting in a unique overview of the evolution development popularity and transformations that took place in medieval artistic iconography The introduction provides chronological thematic and bibliographic surveys to supplement the 500 individual entries the bibliography directs the readers to more detailed studies The work also includes names and topics not always found in art reference sources for example authors whose works were frequently illustrated or who were influential on the visual arts and historical events of significance for the arts Artists of the Middle Ages Leslie D. Ross, 2003-06-30 In the first volume of the Artists of an Era series Leslie Ross examines the identities of artists attributed to the most famous and influential works of medieval art These works are much discussed within the realm of art history yet the identities of medieval artists fall victim to incomplete historical records and often remain enigmatic In ten narrative chapters Ross examines this significant area of the art world including architecture iconography metalwork scribework sculpture even medieval art instruction and summarizes the lives and work of that genre's leading artist or artists Students will learn not only what is factually known of an artist's life as well as what is purely speculative but also the processes used to gather the information and fuel speculation Readers will also gain unique insights into the practices and traditions of medieval art and the role it played within medieval society A timeline chapter bibliographies a list of further resources on medieval art and an index offer additional tools to students of medieval art and art history The Bayeux Tapestry and Its Contexts Elizabeth Carson Pastan, Stephen D. White, Kate Gilbert, 2014 A full and provocative reappraisal of the Bayeux Tapestry its origins design and patronage Aspects of the Bayeux Tapestry in fact an embroidered hanging have always remained mysterious despite much scholarly investigation not least its design and patron Here in the first full length interdisciplinary approach to the subject the authors an art historian and a historian consider these and other issues Rejecting the prevalent view that it was commissioned by Odo the bishop of Bayeux and half brother of William the Conqueror or by some other comparable patron they bring new evidence to bear on the question of its relationship to the abbey of St Augustine's Canterbury From the study of art historical archeological literary historical and documentary materials they conclude that the monks of St Augustine's designed the hanging for display in their abbey church to tell their own story of how England was invaded and conquered in 1066 Elizabeth Carson Pastan is a Professor of Art History at Emory University Stephen D White is Asa G Candler Professor of Medieval History emeritus Emory University and an Honorary Professor of Mediaeval History at the University of St Andrews Latin Literatures of Medieval and Early Modern Times in Europe and Beyond Francesco Stella, Lucie Doležalová, Danuta Shanzer, 2024-07-15 The textual heritage of Medieval Latin is one of the greatest reservoirs of human culture Repertories list more than 16 000 authors from about 20 modern countries Until now there has been no introduction to this world in its full geographical extension Forty contributors fill this gap by adopting a new perspective making available to specialists but also to the interested public new materials and insights The project presents an overview of Medieval and post medieval Latin Literatures as a global phenomenon including both Europe and extra European regions It serves as an introduction to medieval Latin s complex and multi layered culture whose attraction has been underestimated until now Traditional overviews mostly flatten specificities yet in many countries medieval Latin literature is still studied with reference to the local history Thus the first section presents 20 regional surveys including chapters on authors and works of Latin Literature in Eastern Central and Northern Europe Africa the Middle East Asia and the Americas Subsequent chapters highlight shared patterns of circulation adaptation and exchange and underline the appeal of medieval intermediality as evidenced in manuscripts maps scientific treatises and iconotexts and its performativity in narrations theatre sermons and music The last section deals with literary interfaces that is motifs or characters that exemplify the double sided or the long term transformations of medieval Latin mythologemes in vernacular culture both early modern and modern such as the legends about King Arthur Faust and Hamlet

Pathos in Late-Medieval Religious Drama and Art Gabriella Mazzon, 2018-05-23 Pathos as Communicative Strategy in Late Medieval Religious Drama and Art explores the strategies employed to trigger emotional responses in late medieval dramatic texts from several Western European traditions and juxtaposes these texts with artistic productions from the same areas with an emphasis on Britain The aim is to unravel the mechanisms through which pathos was produced and employed mainly through the representation of pain and suffering with mainly religious but also political aims The novelty of the book resides in its specific linguistic perspective which highlights the recurrent use of words structures and dialogic patterns in drama to reinforce messages on the salvific value of suffering in synergy with visual messages produced in the same cultural milieu Medieval Saints in Late Nineteenth Century French Culture Elizabeth Emery, Laurie Postlewaite, 2004-08-02

Legends tales and mysteries featuring saints captivated the French at the end of the nineteenth century As Jean Lorrain pointed out in an 1891 article for the popular weekly Le Courrier Francais the seemingly simple language of the saints lives their noble battles between good and evil and the atmosphere of religious mysticism appealed to many especially those involved in the visual and performing arts Ironically The Third Republic 1870 1940 a regime that claimed to reinforce and institute the secular ideas of the French Revolution was witness to this great popular interest in the saints and religious imagery The eight essays in this work explore the popularity of the saints from the 1850s to the 1920s The essays evaluate the role they played in literature art music science history and politics examine portrayals of the saints lives in both low and high culture from children s literature shadow plays and the popular press to literature opera and theological studies and reveal the prevalence of the saints in fin de siecle France
