Boredom Experience and Associated Behaviors Augustin de la Peña, 2023-10-31 This book collects the lifelong research on boredom by American psychologist Augustin de la Peña 1942-2021. It focuses on the experience of boredom and other similar states including ennui, melancholy, laziness, interest, attention, and entertainment, and its associated behaviors. Offering an interdisciplinary chronicle of boredom from antiquity to the present, special attention is paid to its daily experience as a ubiquitous phenomenon that informs cultural and political actions that continue to shape our society. Dr. de la Peña describes the obsolescence of the Western Commonsense View of Reality to propose a Developmental Psychophysiological Approach to Reality, reconceptualizing boredom. The book theorizes the condition as both logical and emotional, an axis that has defined the sensibility of the modern era. This is a volume edited posthumously by Josefa Ros Velasco and Christian Parreno in homage to Augustin's work and his invaluable contribution to the establishment of the field of boredom studies. Shooting: Field and covert; with contributions by Hon. Gerald Lascelles and A.J. Stuart-Wortley. 6th ed. 1900 Thomas de Grey Baron Walsingham, 1887

Perilous Janet Edwards, 2018-03-18 Amber is one of over a million seventeen-year-olds in one of the great hive cities of twenty-sixth-century Earth. She's worried that she only has a year left before she enters the Lottery of 2532 to have her abilities assessed. The Lottery will decide her hive level, her profession, her whole future life. Amber fears that her lack of any obvious talent will mean she's sent down into the depths of the hive, but her friend Forge is addicted to taking risks. When Forge chooses exactly the wrong moment to put himself in danger, Amber must stop worrying about the future and concentrate on surviving the present. Perilous is a prequel novella in the Hive Mind series.
