Augustinian Epic Petrarch to Milton rewrites the history of the Renaissance Vergilian epic by incorporating the neo Latin side of the story alongside the vernacular one revealing how epics spoke to each other across the language gap and together comprised a single Augustinian tradition of epic poetry Beginning with Petrarch s Africa Warner offers major new interpretations of Renaissance epics both famous and forgotten from Milton s Paradise Lost to a Latin Christiad by his near contemporary Alexander Ross thereby shedding new light on the development of the epic genre For advanced undergraduate

Dreams Frazier Robinson,2000-12-01 In a rare memoir about the Negro Leagues and its celebrated players Frazier Slow Robinson offers an inspiring and often entertaining view of the black baseball diamond through a catcher s mask In 1939 at the age of 29 after playing professional baseball for twelve years Frazier Robinson caught the legendary Satchel Paige in barnstorming games from New Orleans to Walla Walla Robinson played several more seasons in the Negro Leagues before finishing his career in Canada While his career was a solid one it was less spectacular than that of his friend and Hall of Famer Satchel Paige and so more typical of the experience of most Negro Leaguers Richly embroidered with the threads of black society and of life as a black athlete in a racially divided nation Robinson recounts his long career with the skill and ease of a natural storyteller He covers in remarkable detail the personal perspective of the men the teams and the times that shaped this uniquely American subculture From playing catcher for obscure industrial teams to barnstorming with Satchel Paige he chronologically traces his nationwide path through the 1920s 30s 40s and early 50s The Foreword by John Buck O
