Global security Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, 2009-06-14 The control of arms by means of non proliferation and disarmament is one of the most important aims of Government foreign policy The proliferation of weapons of mass destruction nuclear chemical and biological poses a grave threat to UK and global security This report was prompted by recent developments relating to nuclear weapons but also examines wider issues The Committee examine the Government s approach to non proliferation and the institutional and policy issues relevant to the UK the EU NATO and the United States nuclear weapons including the Nuclear Non proliferation Treaty and nuclear disarmament biological and chemical weapons ballistic missiles and missile defence terrorism and physical security and conventional weapons Finally the report assesses the Government s overall strategy which is characterised by a commitment to a rules based international system The Global Community Yearbook of International Law and Jurisprudence 2018

Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo, 2019-08-16 The Global Community Yearbook is a one stop resource for all researchers studying international law generally or international tribunals specifically The Yearbook has established itself as an authoritative source of reference on global legal issues and international jurisprudence It includes analysis of the most significant global trends in a way that allows readers to monitor the development of the global legal order from several perspectives The Global Community Yearbook publishes annually in a volume of carefully chosen primary source material and corresponding expert commentary The general editor Professor Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo employs her vast expertise in international law to select excerpts from important court opinions and to choose experts from around the world to contribute essay guides which illuminate those cases. Although the main focus is recent case law from the major international tribunals and regional courts, the first four parts of each year's edition features expert articles by renowned scholars who address broader themes in current and future developments in international law and global policy themes that appear throughout the case law of the many courts covered by the series as a whole. The Global Community Yearbook has thus become not just an indispensable window to recent jurisprudence; the series now also serves to prepare researchers for the issues facing emerging global law. The 2018 edition both updates readers on the important work of long-standing international tribunals and introduces readers to more novel topics in international law. The Yearbook continues to provide expert coverage of the Court of Justice of the European Union and diverse tribunals from the International Court of Justice (ICJ) to criminal tribunals such as the International Criminal Court (ICC) and the Tribunals for the Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda, to economically based tribunals such as ICSID and the WTO Dispute Resolution panel. This edition contains original research articles on the development and analysis of the concept of global law and the views of the global law theorists such as whether the Paris Declaration of 2017 and the Oslo Recommendation of 2018 deals with enhancing their institutions' legitimacy, how to reconcile human rights, trade law, intellectual property, investment and health law with the WTO dispute settlement panel upholding Australia's tobacco plain packaging measure, Israel's acceptance of Palestinian statehood contingent upon prior Palestinian demilitarization is potentially contrary to pertinent international law, and a proposal to strengthen cooperation between the ECJ and National Courts in light of the failure of the dialogue between the ECJ and the Italian Constitutional Court on the interpretation of Article 325 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. The Yearbook provides students, scholars, and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates, as well as an annual overview of the process of cross-fertilization between international courts and tribunals. The Yearbook provides students, scholars, and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates, as well as an annual overview of the process of cross-fertilization between international courts and tribunals, and a section focusing on the thought of leading international law scholars on the subject of the globalization. Defending the Arsenal Adam B. Lowther, Stephen J. Cimbala, 2016-09-19 One important area of interest within military and policy circles focuses on an effort to revitalize the nuclear triad amidst a number of competing strategic interests. The difficulties arising from US engagement in Iraq and Afghanistan are leading many scholars and policy makers to question whether a reinvigorated nuclear triad has any role in deterring modern adversaries. This volume takes an unashamed pro-nuclear modernization position and argues for designing and fielding new nuclear warheads and delivery systems: submarine ICBM and bomber, while also arguing against signing the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty or agreeing to further reductions in the nuclear arsenal It also argues that nuclear deterrence remains as relevant today perhaps more than it was during the Cold War With so many authors advocating for Global Zero and highlighting perceived dangers from a nuclear arsenal this work stands in stark contrast to the chorus of anti arsenal works Because of the work s structure and effort to answer questions of current relevance it should appeal to a broad audience including service staffs PME students COCOM staffs Pentagon personnel Capitol Hill staffers policy makers academics graduate students and interested readers NATO and the Future of European and Asian Security Christensen, Carsten Sander,Maisaia, Vakhtang,2021-06-25 The key role in the security policy of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO is to prevent new types of asymmetric challenges and deal with the new architecture of the Euro Atlantic security environment including the control of weapons of mass destruction In modern international politics the growing militaristic policies of the states have created many dangers and raised the need for NATO to address new issues that the Alliance did not face during the Cold War NATO and the Future of European and Asian Security reflects on difficult geopolitical and geostrategic conditions and reviews how new types of warfare have a drastic impact on NATO s military and defense doctrine This book provides the newest data and theories and contributes to the understanding of the transformation of the regional security environment in the aegis of the Euro Atlantic Covering topics including foreign policy global security hybrid warfare securitization and smart defense this book is essential for government officials policymakers public relations officers military and defense agencies teachers historians political scientists security analysts national security professionals administrators government organizations researchers academicians and students

Homeland Security in the UK Paul Wilkinson,2007-06-18 This book is a detailed examination of whether domestic security measures are striking an appropriate balance between homeland security and civil liberties in the post 9 11 era Professor Paul Wilkinson and the other contributors assess the nature of UK responses to terrorism by key public and private sector bodies highlighting how these organizations can prevent pre empt counter and manage terrorist attacks by using a matrix of factors such as types of terrorist networks tactics and targets The volume also compares and contrasts the UK s response with cognate states elsewhere in the EU and with the USA While improved intelligence has helped prevent a major Al Qaeda attack the authors conclude that there is still a major question mark over whether the country is adequately resourced to deal with an emergency situation particularly in major cities other than London The book also confirms that while the UK faces a real and serious threat of terrorist attack by Al Qaeda it is better prepared for an attack than other EU member states Homeland Security in the UK will be essential reading for all students of terrorism studies security studies and politics as well as by professional practitioners and well informed general readers Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1987
