The Syntax of Sentence and Text Světlava Mejrková, František Ptáčka, 1994-10-13 This is a collection of papers inspired by the work of František Dane and is published in honour of his 75th birthday Dane international contribution to the development of Prague School functionalism the theory of functional sentence perspective discourse studies and semantics is reflected in the 27 papers collected in four thematic sections of this volume

Text and Interpretation as Categories of Theological Thinking Werner G. Jeanrond, 2005-10-21 The aim of this book is to examine the dimensions of an adequate theological hermeneutics and thus to contribute to the present discussion of theological method One essential concern of theological thinking is the interpretation of texts such as biblical writings creeds dogmas prayers etc This book examines text and interpretation as the two categories of any adequate theory of interpretation In the first chapter a new three dimensional theory of interpretation is developed in critical dialogue with the hermeneutical proposals of Hans Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur The second chapter investigates the concept of text It examines essential features of the textuality of texts and of the process of reading Focusing on the theological methodology of David Tracy the third chapter assesses the hermeneutical character of theology and theology's particular contribution to human understanding The book may be used as a textbook in courses of systematic and philosophical theology because it is written without presupposing any special knowledge of the particular topics discussed It would be most valuable to courses in theological hermeneutics

Perspectives on Object-Centered Learning in Museums Scott G. Paris, 2002-04 The goal of this book is to cull from the last NSF conference the best ideas about how children interact with objects through that interaction acquire new understandings attitudes and feelings

How to Design Questions and Tasks to Assess Student Thinking Susan M. Brookhart, 2014-08-20 With new standards emphasizing higher order thinking skills students will have to demonstrate their ability to do far more than simply remember facts and procedures But what's the best way for teachers to ensure that students have such skills In this highly accessible guide author Susan M Brookhart shows how to do just that by providing specific guidelines for designing targeted questions and tasks that align with standards and assess students ability to think at higher levels Aided by dozens of examples across grade levels and subject areas readers will learn how to take a student perspective and view assessment questions and tasks as problems to solve design multiple choice questions that require higher order thinking understand the difference between open and closed questions and how to use open questions effectively vary and control the features of performance assessment tasks including cognitive level and difficulty to target different thinking skills and manage the assessment of higher order thinking within the larger context of teaching and learning Brookhart also provides an idea bank that teachers can use to jump start their own thinking as they create assessments Timely and practical How to Design Questions and Tasks to Assess Student Thinking is essential reading for 21st century teachers who want their students to excel in the classroom and beyond Tapping and Mapping the Processes of Translation and Interpreting Sonja Tirkkonen-Condit, Riitta Jääskeläinen, 2000-11-24 This volume brings together cognitive psychologists interpreting scholars and translation researchers who look at the process phenomena involved in translation and interpreting T I from various linguistic vantage points The focus is on methodology and the problems that loom large in a multidisciplinary discipline The authors include Annette de Groot Juliane House Kirsten Malmkjaer and Miriam Shlesinger The topics discussed range from simultaneous interpreting subtitling translating in pairs the sub skills involved in T I to expertise and management issues Three major challenges emerge from T I process research as it is portrayed in this book How to maintain a clear vision of the object of study How to ensure methodological sobriety How to transfer the emerging knowledge of expertise to translation pedagogy
