Children's and Young People's Nursing E-Book Edward Alan Glasper, James Richardson, 2010-05-19 This popular textbook is aimed at children's nurses in a wide range of practice settings including primary ambulatory and tertiary care. Covering the full age and specialty spectrum, this text brings together chapters from among the best known children's nurses in the UK. It describes family-centred child healthcare drawing upon practice throughout the UK and further afield. This innovative text provides up-to-date information on a wide range of topics. Each chapter offers readers additional material on Evolve. Full Microsoft PowerPoint presentations that facilitate interactive learning augment the written chapters and provide information not normally possible in a standard textbook, e.g. colour photographs, video clips. Although intended for nurses, the book adopts an interprofessional problem-solving and reflective approach aimed at students, practitioners and child health educators. Material is offered from levels 1, 3 and some of the ancillary material extends into the postgraduate arena. Each chapter offers readers additional material on an Evolve website. Full Microsoft PowerPoint presentations augment the written chapters and provide extra information that includes case studies, moving image photographs and text. Aims, objectives, learning outcomes, a summary box in each chapter and key points assist learning and understanding. Professional conversation boxes enliven the text on the page and make it more interesting to dip into. Suggestions for seminar discussion topics to help teachers. Case studies help to relate theory to practice. Prompts to promote reflective practice. Activity boxes, suggested visits, Evidence-based practice boxes which highlight key research studies, annotated bibliographies including details of web sites and full contemporary references to the evidence base. Resource lists including recommended web site addresses. New chapter on blood disorders of childhood. New material on caring for young people and transitions in care. More on childhood eczema, childhood and adolescent mental health, solid tumours of childhood.

Practices in Children's Nursing E-Book Ethel Trigg, Toby Mohammed, Louise Ford, Hermione Montgomery, Vicky Vidler, 2010-06-17 The skills required by children's nurses are many and varied and are undertaken in a variety of settings. Sick children are cared for at home, in children's units and hospitals and sometimes in adult wards. In addition, children with disabilities may need nursing care while at special schools or in residential settings. This book provides a clinical manual of common practices. Each practice is research-based and presented in a common format which covers Objectives, Rationale, Factors to note, Guidelines, Positioning, Equipment, Method, Special observations and possible complications, References and further reading. The guidelines have been written specifically for children's nursing by contributors from well-known children's units. They are not simply adaptations from adult practices and therefore recognise the unique differences between adult and children's nursing. The introductory section covers common concepts and infection control. There is also a chapter on complementary therapies and an appendix on the use of play as a distraction. All hospital and community nurses dealing with children, whether at home, in specialised units or in community settings, will find the book of great practical help. The common format of each practice makes the book easy to use and refer to in a clinical setting. Each practice is based on the latest research to ensure it is evidence-based and up-to-date.

Introductory chapters cover issues common to all practices to make the book easier to use The appendix on play reinforces its common usage as a distraction technique A chapter on complementary therapies explains these as they are becoming more widespread All practices have been reviewed by regional centres to avoid parochialism Content reorganised to reflect the Essential Skills Clusters from the NMC New chapter on communicating with children All chapters updated to reflect the current evidence base

Caring for Children with Complex Needs in the Community Jean Teare, 2009-01-22 Caring for the Child with Complex Needs in Community Settings provides a valuable overview of the key factors relating to caring for children with complex and continuing care needs Despite its frequent and increasing use complex care needs is a term without an agreed definition This shortfall of knowledge is addressed in this book through critical discussion of evidence based research and current health social and education policy It brings together the latest knowledge into one text providing practitioners with the crucial information needed when working with this diverse and broad group of children Caring for the Child with Complex Needs in Community Settings explores caring for technology dependent children who require respiratory assistance caring for children who require home enteral tube feeds and caring for children with complex disabilities It looks at multi agency care respite care for families social service support and educational support of children with complex needs Practitioners from health social services and education backgrounds have contributed to the chapters using case studies while a parent of a child with complex needs has provided a personal view of caring This accessible and practical text provides core knowledge and vital insight required for successful delivery of community care for children with complex and continuing care needs

Developing Nursing Practice with Children and Young People Jane Hughes, Geraldine Lyte, 2015-09-08 Developing Nursing Practice with Children and Young People explores the context of children's nursing in light of recent policy changes and looks at contemporary issues and emerging roles within the field Divided into four parts Part One focuses on the emergence of children's nursing in healthcare detailing events and developments that have shaped the role of children's nurses Part Two examines many aspects of practice for registered practitioners in nursing ranging from acute care settings to children's nurses developing roles in primary care mental health and with children and young people with special health and social needs Part Three then provides a detailed analysis of advanced practice in children's nursing The advanced skills portfolio is presented in depth augmented by exemplars of a number of advanced practice roles which have already been established Finally Part Four builds on the previous three parts by offering several case studies from practice including accounts from children young people and families as well as assistant practitioners and student nurses The text concludes by focusing on the longer term scope for children's nurses
