Sisters Remembrance Album Andrews McMeel Publishing, 2001-07-01 A Powerhouse of the Spirit William Barham, 2025-01-13 A Powerhouse of the Spirit tells the story of a remarkable woman Margaret Watson who left her conventionally middle class home in England to join an Anglican sisterhood in Grahamstown now known as Makhanda in what was then the Cape Colony at the start of the twentieth century This extraordinary community of inspiring women engaged themselves in educational and caring work among young people of all races in South Africa They built an impressive network of schools orphanages and homes across the subcontinent that left their mark both nationally and in countless individual lives It was in this community of dedicated women that Margaret Watson found fulfilment and self expression both spiritually and artistically Her work as a painter whose vision was nourished by her inner life is becoming increasingly recognised and appreciated Her greatest achievements include her murals for the Chapel of the Training College which the Sisters established in Grahamstown and for the cathedral like Anglican church of St Augustine s in Zululand For the Church of Christ the King in Sophiatown Johannesburg later associated with Father Trevor Huddleston she painted St Francis amid the mine dumps of Johannesburg and Mary the mother of Jesus set in Sophiatown surrounded by its people In this biography which is richly illustrated with photographs and reproductions of Sister Margaret s paintings William Barham recounts the life and times of this unusual woman drawing on archives and interviews to produce a very special account of this visionary and artist

Beyond Nostalgia Ruth E. Ray, 2000 For three years Ruth E Ray visited and participated in eight writing groups at six senior centers in inner city and suburban Detroit looking for ways in which the elderly fashion their memories through personal narrative Her innovative book involves the reader in the construction of life stories as a richly rewarding and highly social process that often reveals the types of relationships that dominate the lives of group members the majority of whom are women Because Ray wrote and responded herself and shares her anxiety and triumph in presenting her writing to women old enough to be her mother some of a different race and class Beyond Nostalgia is an excellent primer for professionals working with diverse groups in a variety of settings It is also an important contribution to the emerging field of feminist gerontology Ray s book demonstrates its own thesis that the presentation and negotiation of life stories in writing groups initiates change and personal growth among older people Drawing on personal observations the give and take of meeting conversations lengthy interviews and the life stories themselves Ray tells a story of adult development through personal narrative She recreates the group process through which age peers begin to articulate what life means both individually and collectively The writing groups of older adults that Ray studied challenged their members to consider not just cultural influences but generational effects on the evolving content and structure of their life stories Age Ray argues has been largely ignored by feminists and she makes a strong case for the need to learn how women make meaning of their lives across the life span As an important document and analysis of that process Beyond Nostalgia should appeal to academics and
