Mindfulness in the Garden offers simple mindfulness verses gathas composed to connect the mind and body and to bring the reader gardener s awareness to the details of the present moment as they work in the garden These gathas are signposts leading to nature to the present and ultimately to one s self through the love and understanding they evoke The gathas offered with each gardening activity serves to water the seeds of mindfulness within us and to soften and prepare the ground for our ability to be present Mindfulness in the Garden values weeds as important messengers seeking to bring into close communion our spiritual nature with that of the environment It likens spiritual practice to cultivating a garden and inspires each person to accept themselves and start where they are weeds and all Through the practice of mindful gardening we invite not only the thriving of the natural world but also the flowering and beauty of the pure land of our true self to emerge Features black and white botanical illustrations throughout Foreword by Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh author of Present Moment Wonderful Moment New Afterword by Mick McEvoy manager of Plum Village Happy Farm in France

Love in the Time of Contagion Laura Kipnis, 2022-02-08 In this timely insightful and darkly funny investigation the acclaimed author of Against Love asks what does living in dystopic times do to our ability to love each other and the world COVID 19 has produced new taxonomies of love intimacy and vulnerability Will its cultural afterlife be as lasting as that of HIV which reshaped consciousness about sex and love even after AIDS itself had been beaten back by medical science Will COVID end up making us more relationally conservative as some think HIV did within gay culture Will it send us fleeing into emotional silos or coupled cocoons despite the fact that pre COVID domestic coupledness had been steadily losing fans Just as COVID revealed our nation to itself so did it hold a mirror up to our relationships In Love in the Time of Contagion Laura Kipnis weaves often hilariously her own ambivalent coupled lockdown experiences together with those of others and sets them against a larger backdrop the politics of the virus economic disparities changing gender relations and the ongoing institutional crack ups prompted by MeToo and Black Lives Matter mapping their effects on the everyday routines and occasional solaces of love and sex
