Smart Moves Why Learning Is Not All In Your Head:

Smart Moves Carla Hannaford, 1995 Smart Moves The body's role in thinking and learning is presented for the first time in a popular readable format thoroughly supported by scientific research Neurophysiologist and educator Carla Hannaford tells us why we must move and shows us how to move to fully activate our learning potential Her remarkable insights will be of great and immediate value to learners of all ages from the gifted to the so called learning disabled Book jacket Kid's Eye View of Science Susan Kovalik, Karen D. Olsen, 2010-09-08 Examines learning science from multiple perspectives including the child's perspective guides readers through the steps of igniting students natural sense of wonder incorporating brain research integrating science concepts with other subjects and applying science to daily life demonstrates how to teach science conceptually through the lens of big ideas such as change interdependence and adaptation Hacking the Humanities: A multimodal pedagogy for creativity and active citizenship. Roberto Cuccu, 2019-10-28 Hacking means to adapt and make productive use out of a given technology or technological context In this book it is illustrated an approach to what could be called digital humanities that is the use of hacking in education with instructional technology rather than completely relying on Technocentric Thinking which is having the technology drive the whole process when one is working on expressing creatively oneself This work celebrates a balance between a humanistic approach to learning by doing and the ever pervading digital world of our present and future time Revealed here are pedagogical strategies for enhancing motivation creativity and human interaction Our investigation yields general principles in communication storytelling and active citizenship that might help to orientate our educational system towards a more democratic and sustainable world made of individuals more aware of their own possibilities values rights and responsibilities Trauma Through a Child's Eyes Peter A. Levine, Ph.D., Maggie Kline, 2010-05-18 What parents educators and health professionals can do to recognize prevent and heal childhood trauma from infancy through adolescence by the author of Waking the Tiger Trauma can result not only from catastrophic events such as abuse violence or loss of loved ones but from natural disasters and everyday incidents like auto accidents medical procedures divorce or even falling off a bicycle At the core of this book is the understanding of how trauma is imprinted on the body brain and spirit often resulting in anxiety nightmares depression physical illnesses addictions hyperactivity and aggression Rich with case studies and hands on activities Trauma Through a Child's Eyes gives insight into children's innate ability to rebound with the appropriate support and provides their caregivers with tools to overcome and prevent trauma Trauma Through A Child's Eyes creates its own mold in a way that everyone concerned with the health and happiness of children will be grateful for Gabor Mat MD author of Hold On to Your Kids
