Smsh Royal Navy Seapower And Strat:

Seapower and Strategy Colin S. Gray, Roger W. Barnett, 1989 Individual essays provide general theories of maritime strategy histories of seapower in action from the Peloponnesian wars onward and contemporary views of the strategic uses of navies in both the West and East The Royal Navy in European Waters During the American Revolutionary War David Syrett, 1998 During the American Revolutionary War Great Britain's Royal Navy faced foes that included in addition to American forces the navies of France Spain and the Netherlands In this operational history of a period that proved to be a turning point for one of the world's great naval powers David Syrett presents a saga of battles blockades great fleet cruises and above all failures and lost opportunities He explains that the British government severely underestimated the Americans maritime strength and how that error led to devastating consequences The seemingly invincible navy failed to muster even one decisive victory during the extensive naval conflict Imperial War Museum Book of the War at Sea 1914-18

Julian Thompson, 2011-07-22 Based on gripping first hand testimony from the archives of the Imperial War Museum this book reveals what it was really like to serve in the Royal Navy during the First World War It was a period of huge change for the first time the British navy went into battle with untried weapon systems dreadnoughts submarines aircraft and airships Julian Thompson blends insightful narrative with never before published stories to show what these men faced and overcame Officers and men from admirals down to the youngest sailors faced the same dangers at sea in often terrible weather conditions with the ever present prospect of being blown to pieces or choking to death trapped in a compartment or turret as they plunged to the bottom of the sea In their own words they share their experiences from long patrols and pitched battles in the cold rough water of the North Sea to the perils of warfare in the Dardanelles from the cat and mouse search for Vice Admiral Graf von Spee in the Pacific to the dangerous raids on Ostend and Zeebrugge We see what it was like to spend weeks in the cramped smelly submarines of the period or to attack U boats from unreliable airships The Crisis of British Sea Power James Levy, 2024-02-20 This work is a close examination of the conditions surrounding and precipitating the last gasp of British naval hegemony and events that led to its demise Great Britain undertook a massive naval building program in the late 1930s in order to deter aggression and secure dominance at sea against her nascent enemies Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy But the failure of the policy of Appeasement to deter war or delay it into the early 1940s left the building program only partially complete and the exigencies of war led to the cancellation of the critical but costly and time consuming Lion class battleships and the slow delivery of the 1940 battlecruiser HMS Vanguard and two vital fleet carriers Adding to these issues the fall of France spurred the USA to initiate her own even larger naval building program and together with the entry of the powerful and capable Imperial Japanese Navy completely overwhelmed Britain's position as the world's premier naval power This book will be of value to those interested in the history of the Second World War British strategy and the British navy The Royal Navy's Home Fleet in World War 2 J. Levy, 2003-10-23 This book marks the first comprehensive history of Britain's naval bulwark the Home Fleet. It illuminates the vital role that fleet played in preserving Britain as a base of operations against Hitler. We see portrayed the hard days of blockade patrol and battle that encompassed the Home Fleet's war. And we see how that war was made harder by weaknesses at the Admiralty and by the damaging interference of the Minister of Defence Winston Churchill. War at Sea James P. Delgado, 2019. From an author who has spent four decades in the quest for lost ships, this lavishly illustrated history of naval warfare presents the latest archaeology of sunken warships. It provides a unique perspective on the evolution of naval conflicts, strategies and technologies while vividly conjuring up the dangerous life of war at sea. Joint Force Quarterly, 1995. Strategy and the Sea N. A. M. Rodger, Jeremiah Ross Dancy, Benjamin Darnell, Evan Wilson, 2016. An important book presenting the latest insights by the leading world authorities on naval history. This book presents a wide range of new research on many aspects of naval strategy in the early modern and modern periods. Among the themes covered are the problems of naval manpower, the nature of naval leadership and naval officers' intelligence, naval training and education and strategic thinking and planning. The book is notable for giving extensive consideration to navies other than those of Britain, its empire and the United States. It explores a number of fascinating subjects including how financial difficulties frustrated the attempts by Louis XIV's ministers to build a strong navy, how the absence of centralised power in the Dutch Republic had important consequences for Dutch naval power, how Hitler's relationship with his admirals severely affected German naval strategy during the Second World War and many more besides. The book is a Festschrift in honour of John B. Hattendorf for more than thirty years. Ernest J. King, Professor of Maritime History at the US Naval War College and an influential figure in naval affairs worldwide. N. A. M. Rodger is Senior Research Fellow at All Souls College, Oxford. J. Ross Dancy is Assistant Professor of Military History at Sam Houston State University. Benjamin Darnell is a D.Phil. candidate at New College, Oxford. Evan Wilson is Caird Senior Research Fellow at the National Maritime Museum, Greenwich. Contributors: Tim Benbow, Peter John Brobst, Jaap R. Bruijn, Olivier Chaline, J. Ross Dancy, Benjamin Darnell, James Goldrick, Agustín Guimer, Paul Kennedy, Keizo Kitagawa, Roger Knight, Andrew D. Lambert, George C. Peden, Carla Rahn Phillips, Werner Rahn, Paul M. Ramsey, Duncan Redford, N. A. M. Rodger, Jakob Seerup, Matthew S. Seligmann, Geoffrey Till, Evan Wilson. The Origin, Causes and Object of the War Percy Fitzpatrick, 1915. Strategic Review, 2000. dedicated to the advancement and understanding of those principles and practices military and political which serve the vital security interests of the United States.
