Thomas,2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America. A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work. It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making. Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A. Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric. The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee, Frederick Douglass, Malcolm X, Martin Luther King Jr., Gardner C. Taylor, Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history. The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements. Sermons from the first decade of the twenty-first century point toward the future of African American preaching. Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods. The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths, ancestries, and educational backgrounds. They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor, rhythm, and imagery to communicate with their congregations. What they all have in common is hope, resilience, and sacred fire. Even during the most difficult and oppressive times, Simmons and Thomas write in the preface, the delivery, creativity, charisma, expressivity, fervor, forcefulness, passion, persuasiveness, poise, power, rhetoric, spirit, style, and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege. This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity, spiritual richness, and strength of African American life.

Blazing the Trail Vinita Hampton Wright, 2025-02-07. Four remarkable women stand apart as women who boldly carried their faith into the heart of American life: Saints Elizabeth Ann Seton and Frances Xavier Cabrini and Servants of God Dorothy Day and Thea Bowman. Building on the success of Set the World on Fire, renowned spiritual author and retreat leader Vinita Hampton Wright now offers Blazing the Trail, a powerful four-week retreat with these American Women of the Church to help you connect personally with some of the Church's most influential female visionaries and activists. Spanning three centuries of American history, the dramatic lives of these women will inspire you to cultivate grit, humility, discernment, vision, courage, and strength. Each week of your retreat begins with weekend reading and prayer to introduce the woman and the spiritual theme of the week, followed by five days of morning and evening prayers. Much of the text comes from the women's own writings. Scripture reflection questions and action steps are thoughtfully crafted to help you engage personally with each woman and her wisdom for living out your faith. Week one: St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, considered the mother of American Catholic education. Seton's pursuit of truth transformed her journey from Episcopal convert to Catholic founder, revealing how faith can redefine your calling. Week two: St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, a determined Italian immigrant whose missionary work brought hope and purpose to thousands of orphans and impoverished children in New York City during the late 1800s, offers a lesson in how perseverance and faith can change the world. Week three: Servant of God Dorothy Day, a social activist of the twentieth century who poured her heart out for the poor and the marginalized.

while unabashedly criticizing hypocrisy in the Church dares us to match our bold declarations of faith with equally bold actions

The Art of Dying and Living Kerry Walters, 2011 Earlier generations of Christians studied classic ars moriendi manuals on the art of dying to help them face and embrace mortality They learned from these books something our own generation is in danger of forgetting that the manner in which one dies very much depends on the manner in which one has lived The author explores the connection between living and dying well by recounting the stories of seven exemplary people of our time and the particular virtues they embodied
