Skating To Antarctica:

Skating to Antarctica Jenny Diski, 1998 This travel journal traces a personal journey to Antarctica For over 30 years Jenny Diski was content to leave the question as to whether her mother was alive or dead unanswered Not knowing the fate of the violent woman she last saw shortly after her father's death in 1966 filled her with a sense of relief rather than of loss Then just as Diski is planning a trip to the dream world of ice her own teenage daughter decides to investigate what had happened to her crazy missing maternal grandmother

Stranger on a Train Jenny Diski, 2002-10-04 The author describes her journey into the heart of the United States during two cross country trips aboard Amtrak as she looks at herself and her own life through the mirror of America and Americans

Borderlines Gunnthórunn Gudmundsdóttir, 2016-08-09 Borderlines Autobiography and Fiction in Postmodern Life Writing locates and investigates the borderlines between autobiography and fiction in various kinds of life writing dating from the last thirty years This volume offers a valuable comparative approach to texts by French English American and German authors to illustrate the different forms of experimentation with the borders between genres and literary modes Gudmundsdóttir tackles important contemporary concerns such as autobiography's relationship to postmodernism by investigating themes such as memory and crossing cultural divides the use of photographs in autobiography and the role of narrative in life writing This work is of interest to students and scholars of comparative literature postmodernism and contemporary life writing

Life Writing and the Southern Hemisphere Elleke Boehmer, Katherine Collins, 2024-11-14 Exploring lives lived written and narrated in and from the Global South the far South and the ultimate South Antarctica this book asks how life writing from southerly compass points impact both how we understand and read life narratives and ultimately how we perceive our planet Southern geographies histories and lives have often been overlooked and defined by northern perspectives Life Writing and the Southern Hemisphere redresses this North South alignment in its critical examination of life stories memoirs biographies and autobiographies from the southern hemisphere providing a countervailing and alternative perspective that will unsettle challenge and enrich the imaginative norms that inform life writing studies From Tierra del Fuego and Patagonia in South America through southern Africa to Australia and New Zealand and as far down as Antarctica this collection brings together writers and scholars in the oceanic humanities postcolonial Global South and polar studies and presents works on human animal and plant life captured in words music performance visual arts and photography Interdisciplinary and vast in its comparative range Life Writing and the Southern Hemisphere convenes a diversity of perspectives and positions that demonstrate that the south has rich internal knowledge sources of its own allowing us to better conceptualize the planet from below
