Small Town Everyday Things Of Children Community:

Small-Town America Robert Wuthnow, 2015-05-26 A revealing examination of small town life More than thirty million Americans live in small out of the way places Many of them could have joined the vast majority of Americans who live in cities and suburbs They could live closer to more lucrative careers and convenient shopping a wider range of educational opportunities and more robust health care But they have opted to live differently In Small Town America we meet factory workers shop owners retirees teachers clergy and mayors residents who show neighborliness in small ways but who also worry about everything from school closings and their children s futures to the ups and downs of the local economy Drawing on more than seven hundred in depth interviews in hundreds of towns across America and three decades of census data Robert Wuthnow shows the fragility of community in small towns He covers a host of topics including the symbols and rituals of small town life the roles of formal and informal leaders the social role of religious congregations the perception of moral and economic decline and the myriad ways residents in small towns make sense of their own lives Wuthnow also tackles difficult issues such as class and race abortion homosexuality and substance abuse Small Town America paints a rich panorama of individuals who reside in small communities finding that for many people living in a small town is an important part of self identity

A Census Report of Orphaned and Vulnerable Children in Two South African Communities

Sean Jooste, Azwifaneli Managa, Leickness Chisamu Simbayi, 2006 In 2002 the Human Sciences Research Council was commissioned by the WK Kellogg Foundation to develop and implement a five year intervention project focusing on orphans and vulnerable children OVC in southern Africa In collaboration with several partner organisations the project currently focuses on how children families and communities in Botswana South Africa and Zimbabwe are coping with the impact of HIV AIDS The aim of the project is to develop models of best practise so as to enhance and improve support structures for OVC in the southern African region as a whole This report forms part of a series that examines the work undertaken as part of the Kellogg OVC Intervention Project from 2002 to 2005

Claiming Home, Shaping Community Gloria H.

Cuádras, Yolanda Flores, 2017-11-07 To offer testimonio is inherently political a vehicle that counters the hegemony of the state and illuminates the repression and denial of human rights Claiming Home Shaping Community shares testimonios from and about the lives of Mexican origin people who left the rural agricultural Imperial and San Joaquin Valleys to pursue higher education at a University of California campus While symbolically their journeys embody the master narrative of the American Dream Claiming Home Shaping Community does not echo the rags to riches trope reified in dominant culture but rather it asserts the need to rehumanize the purpose and heart of education In each chapter the narrators illustrate myriad supports that allowed them to move forward on their academic and professional journeys hard work affirmative action inclusionary practices mentors and their communities cultural wealth Each trajectory is unique but put together as a collection the commonalities emerge Denoting a sense of political and social urgency that responds to the current accentuated economic disparities between the haves and the have nots these essays illuminate the broader societal benefits of federal legislation and resources for state funded public higher education and policies that broaden access and resources By telling their stories the contributors seek to empower others on their journeys to and through higher education Contributors Daniel Nane Alejandrez Manuel Barajas Angelica C rdenas Chaisson Gloria H Cu draz Yolanda Flores Francisco J Galarte John J Halc n Ester Hern ndez Rosa M Jim nez Roberto Moreno Jos R Padilla Enid P rez Caroline Sotello Viernes Turner Community Leadership ,1920 Community Leaflet United States.
