players known collectively as the Baby Bentley generation Nicknamed The King of Bling by the tabloid press Dyer was caught up in many of the scandals that characterised the history of a talented crop of players who promised so much and delivered so little a generation whose wages and lavish lifestyles began to alienate them from the fans who once worshipped them The brash young man is gone now and in his place is the quiet caring wise man who was such a favourite on I m a Celebrity Get me Out of Here in 2015 Dyer narrates in uncompromising detail how a generation of talented English footballers taken out of working class childhoods and presented with a world of glitz glamour wealth and temptation failed to cope with the riches that were presented to them and often fell apart Old Too Soon Smart Too Late is about a moment in time a social and historical record of English football at the start of its gold rush For Dyer the end of the book brings a measure of personal redemption and peace but for the English game there is only a lingering sense of waste and regret for an opportunity lost

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him.
