Terri Michael Schiavo, Michael Hirsh, 2006 Accused of being a murderer and indeed threatened with murder Schiavo speaks out about his efforts to save wife Terri and finally to let her go in a memoir that should prove both painful and controversial Seeking the Truth Terri Reed, 2019-08-01 Her investigation could prove fatal In this exciting True Blue K 9 Unit installment By secretly investigating the New York City K 9 Command Unit chief's murder reporter Rachelle Clark puts a bull's eye on her back Single dad and K 9 unit officer Carter Jameson thought Rachelle was reporting on police field dog trials not his brother's death Though he's not happy about her true purpose the danger is real and he and his trusty German shepherd must save her The World's Best Thin Books, Revised Joni Richards Bodart, 2000-05-09 The book report is due and panic sets in A THIN book is the ticket But perhaps a THINNER book Or the THINNEST book of all And how to pick one quickly that will be interesting Students teachers and librarians will love this handy little volume that describes 100 titles recommended for middle and high school students Readable attention grabbing all are less than 200 pages Each entry lists title and author provides information on characters plot and action and even suggests topics to cover in a book report Librarians and teachers will appreciate the inclusion of curricular areas and readability indexes and students will find the appendix on approaches to writing a book report or booktalk a real gold mine Five indexes make locating the perfect title a breeze The genre index guides you to the kind of book you want to read The subject index lists dozens of subjects from adoption to writing divorce to time travel The readability index guides you to the quick reads or thoughtful novels If you have a favorite author or already know of a novel you want to read there is the author or title index Finally the curriculum index allows you to look for a book for a particular class Replacing Truth Kevin Scharp, 2013-07-11 Kevin Scharp proposes an original theory of the nature and logic of truth on which truth is an inconsistent concept that should be replaced for certain theoretical purposes Replacing Truth opens with an overview of work on the nature of truth e.g. correspondence theories deflationism work on the liar and related paradoxes and a comprehensive scheme for combining these two literatures into a unified study of the concept truth Scharp argues that truth is best understood as an inconsistent concept and proposes a detailed theory of inconsistent concepts that can be applied to the case of truth Truth also happens to be a useful concept but its inconsistency inhibits its utility as such it should be replaced with consistent concepts that can do truth's job without giving rise to paradoxes To this end Scharp offers a pair of replacements which he dubs ascending truth and descending truth along with an axiomatic theory of them and a new kind of possible worlds semantics for this theory As for the nature of truth he goes on to develop Davidson's idea that it is best understood as the core of a measurement system for rational phenomena e.g. belief desire and meaning The book finishes with a semantic theory that treats truth predicates as assessment sensitive i.e. their extension is relative to a context of assessment and a demonstration of how this theory solves the problems posed by the liar and other paradoxes Absolute Forgiveness Addison Paisley, 2008-03-17 Struggling to deal with her mother's tragic death and in love with Heather a woman she thinks she cannot have Andrea Reynolds decides to leave it all behind and start her life over again When fate intervenes bringing Andrea unexpectedly back into Heather's life both women struggle with their emotions Seeing Heather again after eight years sends Andrea sliding into a self destructive tailspin She can't eat she can't sleep and she can't find a way to move on Seeing Heather again wasn't part of her precisely executed plan Still scorned by Andrea's actions Heather fights to hold on to her anger The pain remains but her heart and her body have minds of their own Their journey is marred by obstacles and misunderstandings Unfortunate timing is a constant barrier and Rebecca Heather's deceptive and vindictive ex girlfriend refuses to let go Loving each other is easy forgiving each other seems almost impossible
