Ethnicity and Territory in the Former Soviet Union Dr James Hughes, Gwendolyn Sasse, 2014-09-25 The collapse of the Soviet empire in 1991 removed a decades long system of successful control of potential ethnic and regional conflict The result was the eruption of numerous conflicts over state building some of which degenerated into violence and some of which were resolved or prevented by strategies of accommodation This volume explores the common trends and differences in the responses of the new post Soviet states to the problems of state building in ethnically and regionally divided societies focusing on the impact of ethnic and regional conflicts on post communist transition and institutional development The book will be essential reading for specialists and students alike who are interested in conflict regulation and post Soviet politics

Territory, War, and Peace John A. Vasquez, Marie T. Henehan, 2023-04-14 This book presents a collection of new and updated essays on what has come to be known as the territorial explanation of war The book argues that a key both to peace and to war lies in understanding the role territory plays as a source of conflict and inter group violence Of all the issues that spark conflict territorial disputes have the highest probability of escalating to war War however is hardly inevitable much depends on how territorial issues are handled More importantly settling territorial disputes and establishing mutually recognized boundaries can produce long periods of peace between neighbors even if other salient issues arise While territory is not the only cause of war and wars arise from other issues territory is one of the main causes of war and learning how to manage it can in principle eliminate an entire class of wars This book will be of great interest to all students of war and conflict studies causes of war and peace international security and strategic studies John A Vasquez is Thomas B Mackie Scholar in International Relations at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign He is author of The Steps to War 2008 with Paul Senese and The War Puzzle Revisited 2009 He has been president of the Peace Science Society International and the International Studies Association Marie T Henahan is Director of Internships and Lecturer Department of Political Science at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign She is author of Foreign Policy and Congress An International Relations Perspective and co editor of The Scientific Study of Peace and War
