Contemporary Visual Arts ,2001 Studio International ,1983 Artbibliographies Modern ,1996 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Who's who in Art Bernard Dolman,2006

The Tradition Peter Lord,2023-07-06 Peter Lord considered to be the greatest living scholar on Welsh visual art and culture surveys the evolution of the visual culture of Wales from the Renaissance to the end of the twentieth century in this new single volume history Written for everyone with an interest in the art and history of Wales the volume illustrates some 400 landscapes and portrait paintings prints and sculptures from artists such as Augustus John Ceri Richards Christopher Williams and many more The author describes both how the work emerged from its Welsh historical context and was related to the art of other cultures Revealing the many discoveries made since its first publication of the Visual Culture of Wales series in 1998 The Tradition is the only study now in print that encompasses the whole field of Welsh visual art It is published with the support of the National Museum of Wales The Paul Mellon Foundation the National Library of Wales the Marc Fitch Fund Swansea University and the Welsh Book Council Includes new and expanded material not originally featured within Lord s Visual Culture of Wales series Terry Setch Martin Holman,2009 This is the first full scale survey of the art and life of Terry Setch b 1936 a British painter recognised internationally as one of the most consistently radical artists of his generation It provides a critical structure and historical perspective with which to explore Setch s artistic production over fifty years Martin Holman s text considers Setch s work in terms of the themes that he has sustained over the course of his career and the qualities that have made him admired by several generations of British artists It places his art in the context of the work of his contemporaries Michael Sandle Patrick Caulfield Julian Schnabel the times in which the paintings were made and exhibited and Setch s dialogue with Modernism international art and history Art Index Retrospective ,1996

Contemporary British Art Grant Pooke,2012-11-12 The last few decades have been among the most dynamic within recent British cultural history Artists across all genres and media have developed and re fashioned their practice against a radically changing social and cultural landscape both national and global This book takes a fresh look at some of the themes ideas and directions which have informed British art since the later 1980s through to the first decade of the new millennium

In addition to discussing some iconic images and examples it also looks more broadly at the contexts in which a new post conceptual generation of artists those typically born since the late 1950s and 1960s have approached and developed aspects of their professional practice Contemporary British Art is an ideal introduction to the field To guide the reader the book is organised around genres or related practices painting sculpture and installation and film video and performance The first chapter explores aspects of the contemporary art market and some of the contexts within which art is made supported and exhibited The chapters that discuss various genres of art practice also mention books that may be useful to support further reading Extensively illustrated with a wide range of work both known and less well known from artists such as Chris Ofili Rachel Whiteread Damien Hirst Banksy Anthony Gormley Jack Vettriano Sam Taylor Wood Steve McQueen and Tracey Emin and many more
