Cancer from Both Sides Now ... a Journey of Faith Marcia L. Kiser, 2014-09-04 This book is a spiritual and clinical guide from a faith perspective. It is designed to encourage anyone enduring cancer treatments and its debilitating side effects or anyone with a terminal illness to always maintain their faith in God's healing powers and know that there is always faith, hope, and love if we simply are patient, look upward, and seek God's divine guidance. Mrs. Kiser describes her rollercoaster ride as she experiences her cancer and radiation therapy. Although she has her world torn inside out and upside down by fear and doubt, she witnesses the healing power and strength that comes from slowing down in life, taking one day at a time, and listening to God as He speaks to us in many different ways to help us cope with our illness and find a road to recovery through a journey of faith. Mrs. Kiser's background in psychology, counseling, and courses in death and dying can inspire anyone to face the stages of dying as a normal human process and still find courage and victory in living each day to the fullest. Mrs. Kiser is more than qualified to offer this guidance because she is not only an oncology nurse with many years of experience but she is also a cancer patient herself who shares her own life experiences in the hope of inspiring others to a better and fuller quality of life despite the odds.

Life and Poetic Emotions LadyBlue2000, 2011-07-28 I started writing many years ago. At first it was just mental therapy for me. My doctor, a very great psychologist, told me that if I wrote my feelings down on paper that it would help me feel better and cope with what's bothering me in my head. I suffered many horrors in my life, and I needed a way to cope and live a normal life. Well, my life isn't exactly normal as you will read. And neither are some of my poems. The question for me to ask is: anyone's life really normal? I wanted my life to be written so that the future generations of my family will know about me and will know of how I became the person that I ended up to be. By accident, I realized that I could write poems of many kinds. A guarantee that you will laugh and sometimes cry and even learn from my poems. Of how to love, heal, cope, laugh, cry, live, and get even through my poems. Many of my friends online around the world give me subjects to write about. To be their words for them to speak to others. To help to heal, to dream, reasons to live, and reasons to want to pray. And reasons to not want to die. I thought to myself that if I'm going to be a writer, that I don't want to let one subject be untouched. To speak out words that I feel need to be heard through my poems. I want my book to be of help to others for whatever needs they have. And I pray with my whole heart that you get something good out of what you are about to read. And whether you believe it or not, you will find in my book of something that you might need written in one or more of my poems. And the life story is to help you know that your life is better than you may have thought. In my poems, there is something for everyone. And that means you. My e-mail is written in my book if you would like to write me or even comment on my book. Weather good or bad, happy or sad, I would like to know of how you feel. Jet, 2001 Touched by Cancer...
