1970s to the present through the lens of world literary systems and feminist theory this book details aesthetic patterns between decades nations and authors The works of canonical Arab feminist authors such as Nawal El Saadawi and Hanan Al Shaykh are put in conversation with those of contemporary authors such as Adania Shibli Joumana Haddad and Mansoura Ez Eldin These works are linked through their creative feminist theorisations of loss and living Public and Popular History Jerome De Groot,2013-09-13 This interdisciplinary collection considers public and popular history within a global framework seeking to understand considerations of local domestic histories and the ways they interact with broader discourses Grounded in particular local and national situations the book addresses the issues associated with popular history in a globalised cultural world such as how the study of popular history might work in the future new ways in which the terms popular and public might inform one another and nuance scholarship transnational intercultural models of pastness cultural translatability and the demand for high quality work on new technologies and history A wide range of international contributors consider a broad selection of locale and media from American television and Canadian heritage to the representation of history in contemporary Chinese culture They consider the way in which the study of public or popular texts invoke multiple historiographies and demonstrate our need to think about public and popular aspects of the past in new emerging locales such as China Eastern Europe and South America This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Rethinking History Too Soon Betty Shamieh,2025-01-28 A funny sexy and heart wrenching literary debut that explores exile ambition and hope across three generations of Palestinian American women A Girl Made of Dust Nathalie Abi-Ezzi,2010-07-13 A beautifully written lyrical completely believable prize winning novel about a girl s coming of age in war torn Lebanon Publishers Weekly In her peaceful town outside Beirut Ruba is slowly awakening to the shifting contours within her household hardly speaking and refusing to work her father has inexplicably withdrawn from his family in favor of his favorite armchair her once youthful mother looks so sad that Ruba imagines her heart must have withered like a fig in the heat and Ruba s brother Naji is spending less time with Ruba than he is with older friends some of whom carry guns In trying to salvage her family Ruba uncovers a secret from her father s past It sends her on a journey far from the fantasies of youth and into a brutal reality where men kill in the name of faith and race old wrongs remain unforgiven and where nothing less than self sacrifice and unity can offer survival But as Israeli troops invade Beirut and danger moves ever closer Ruba realizes that she alone may not be able to keep her loved ones safe She must first save her father Exquisitely affecting page turningly suspenseful A Girl Made of Dust is equally gripping as a poignant family drama and as a visceral depiction of living with war literally crashing on your doorstep Words Without Borders With its delightful and precocious narrator reminiscent of Scout in To Kill a Mockingbird Abi Ezzi captures both a country and a childhood plagued by a conflict that even at its darkest and most threatening carries the promise of healing and retribution Christian Science Monitor Spice Road Maiya Ibrahim,2024-04-23 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER Raised to protect her nation from the monsters lurking in the sands
