Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Criminological Perspectives on Race and Crime Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2015-02-11 Ideal for use in either crime theory or race and crime courses this is the only text to look at the array of explanations for crime as they relate to racial and ethnic populations Each chapter begins with a historical review of each theoretical perspective and how its original formulation and more recent derivatives account for racial ethnic differences The theoretical perspectives include those based on religion biology social disorganization strain subculture labeling conflict social control colonial and feminism The author considers which perspectives have shown the most promise in the area of race ethnicity and crime A Guide to Sources of Texas Criminal Justice Statistics R. Scott Harnsberger, 2011 This reference work was compiled as a resource for those needing assistance in locating Texas criminal justice statistics R Scott Harnsberger has compiled more than 600 entries describing statistical sources for Texas crime criminals law enforcement courts and sentencing adult and juvenile corrections capital punishment and death row victims of crime driving boating under the influence traffic fatalities substance abuse and treatment polls and rankings and fiscal topics such as appropriations revenues expenditures and federal aid The sources for these statistics originate primarily but not exclusively from federal and State of Texas agencies boards bureaus commissions and departments The following types of publications are included annual biennial and biannual reports reports issued in series analytic and research reports statistical compilations budgets and other fiscal documents audits inspections and investigations census publications polls projections rankings surveys continuously updated online resources and datasets Harnsberger has annotated the entries to provide sufficient detail to enable users to decide whether the listed resources merit further investigation Additional notes contain URLs and information regarding the scope of the published data title changes related publications and the availability of earlier data previous editions online tables and datasets This book will prove to be a valuable resource for students faculty researchers government officials and individuals in the law enforcement correctional and judicial professions

Capital Punishment: New Perspectives Peter Hodgkinson, 2016-04-08 This collection asks questions about the received wisdom of the debate about capital punishment Woven through the book questions are asked of and remedies proposed for a raft of issues identified as having been overlooked in the traditional discourse It provides a long overdue review of the disparate groups and strategies that lay claim to abolitionism The authors argue that capital litigators should use their skills challenging the abuses not just of process but of the conditions in which the condemned await their fate namely prison conditions education leisure visits medical services etc In the aftermath of successful constitutional challenges it is the beneficiaries arguably those who are considered successes having been saved from the death penalty and now serving living death penalties of one sort or another who are suffering the cruel and inhumane alternative Part I of the book offers a selection of diverse nuanced examinations of death penalty phenomena scrutinizing complexities frequently omitted from the narrative of academics and activists It offers a challenging and comprehensive analysis of issues critical to the abolition debate Part II offers examinations of countries usually absent from academic analysis to provide an understanding of the status of the debate locally with opportunities for wider application
