Practices in Children's

Nursing E-Book Ethel Trigg,Toby Mohammed,Louise Ford,Hermione Montgomery,Vicky Vidler,2010-06-17 The skills required by children s nurses are many and varied and are undertaken in a variety of settings Sick children are cared for at home in children s units and hospitals and sometimes in adult wards In addition children with disabilities may need nursing care while at special schools or in residential settings This book provides a clinical manual of common practices Each practice is research based and presented in a common format which covers Objectives Rationale Factors to note Guidelines Positioning Equipment Method Special observations and possible complications References and further reading The guidelines have been written specifically for children s nursing by contributors from well known children s units They are not simply adaptations from adult practices and therefore recognise the unique differences between adult and children s nursing The introductory section covers common concepts and infection control There is also a chapter on complementary therapies and an appendix on the use of play as a distraction All hospital and community nurses dealing with children whether at home in specialised units or in community settings will find the book of great practical help The common format of each practice makes the book easy to use and refer to in a clinical setting Each practice is based on the latest research to ensure it is evidence based and up to date Introductory chapters cover issues common to all practices to make the book easier to use The appendix on play reinforces its common usage as a distraction technique A chapter on complementary therapies explains these as they are becoming more widespread All practices have been reviewed by regional centres to avoid parochialism Content reorganised to reflect the Essential Skills Clusters from the NMC New chapter on communicating with children All chapters updated to reflect the current evidence base

Caring for Children with Complex Needs in the Community

Jean Teare, 2009-01-22 Caring for the Child with Complex Needs in Community Settings provides a valuable overview of the key factors relating to caring for children with complex and continuing care needs Despite its frequent and increasing use complex care needs is a term without an agreed definition This shortfall of knowledge is addressed in this book through critical discussion of evidence based research and current health social and education policy It brings together the latest knowledge into one text providing practitioners with the crucial information needed when working with this diverse and broad group of children Caring for the Child with Complex Needs in Community Settings explores caring for technology dependent children who require respiratory assistance caring for children who require home enteral tube feeds and caring for children with complex disabilities It looks at multi agency care respite care for families social service support and educational support of children with complex needs Practitioners from health social services and education backgrounds have contributed to the chapters using case studies while a parent of a child with complex needs has provided a personal view of caring This accessible and practical text provides core knowledge and vital insight required for successful delivery of community care for children with complex and continuing care needs

Developing Nursing Practice with Children and Young People

Jane Hughes, Geraldine Lyte, 2015-09-08 Developing Nursing Practice with Children and Young People explores the context of children's nursing in light of recent policy changes and looks at contemporary issues and emerging roles within the field Divided into four parts Part One focuses on the emergence of children's nursing in healthcare detailing events and developments that have shaped the role of children's nurses Part Two examines many aspects of practice for registered practitioners in nursing ranging from acute care settings to children's nurses developing roles in primary care mental health and with children and young people with special health and social needs Part Three then provides a detailed analysis of advanced practice in children's nursing The advanced skills portfolio is presented in depth augmented by exemplars of a number of advanced practice roles which have already been established Finally Part Four builds on the previous three parts by offering several case studies from practice including accounts from children young people and families as well as assistant practitioners and student nurses The text concludes by focusing on the longer term scope for children's nurses

Palliative Care Nursing of Children and Young People Rita Pfund, 2018-10-08 Children's palliative care is an evolving specialty and as such our knowledge base cannot remain static This book constantly challenges the reader to critically analyze their own practices and beliefs within an evidence based framework and as such makes a valuable contribution to the growing body of knowledge on this important subject Susan Fowler Kerry in the Foreword This book caters for readers from different working environments and levels of experience It is ideal for paediatric nurses with no specialist palliative care knowledge and also for palliative care nurses with no specialist paediatric experience Other healthcare professionals and therapists working with children young people and their families will also find this book invaluable It will also be ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate health and social care students and professionals involved in children s hospices community services and charity groups This book captures not just the rapidly evolving evidence base but also as many current developments as possible and applies them in a meaningful way to the care of infants children and young people living with life limiting illness and their families It offers an overview of contemporary issues and helps to stimulate the type of dialogue that can bring about the actions that will make a real difference for the children young people and families in our care Rita Pfund in the Preface
