The

An Autobiography

Education of Richard Rodriguez

"Superb autobiographical essay... Mr. Rodriguez offers himself as an example of the long labor of change: its costs, about which he is movingly frank, its loneliness, but also its triumph."

The Hunger Of Memory The Education Of Richard Rodriguez An Autobiography:

Hunger of Memory Richard Rodriguez, 2004-02-03 Hunger of Memory is the story of Mexican American Richard Rodriguez who begins his schooling in Sacramento California knowing just 50 words of English and concludes his university studies in the stately quiet of the reading room of the British Museum Here is the poignant journey of a minority student who pays the cost of his social assimilation and academic success with a painful alienation from his past his parents his culture and so describes the high price of making it in middle class America Provocative in its positions on affirmative action and bilingual education Hunger of Memory is a powerful political statement a profound study of the importance of language and the moving intimate portrait of a boy struggling to become a man Hunger of Memory Richard Rodriguez, 1981

CLASSICS Hunger of Memory Richard Rodriguez, Hunger of Memory Richard Rodriguez, 1983-12 The son of Mexican immigrants explores the educational process and rejects affirmative action and bilingualism as benign errors Hunger of Memory: The Education of Richard Rodriguez Richard Rodriguez, 1983 For use in schools and libraries only The son of Mexican immigrants explores the educational process and rejects affirmative action and bilingualism as benign errors A Study Guide for Richard Rodriguez's "Hunger of Memory: The Education of Richard Rodriguez" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Richard Rodriguez's Hunger of Memory: The Education of Richard Rodriguez excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Nonfiction Classics for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Nonfiction Classics for Students for all of your research needs The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling, 2017 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story

Less is More Kimberly Campbell, 2007 Less Is More is full of powerful ideas for teaching with short provocative text This book broadens and extends our available teaching tools and materials and can help engage all students It is a valuable resource for language arts teachers Cris Tovani Language arts teachers want all of their students to love literature and embrace the novels they assign The classroom reality is that many students are not ready or motivated to immerse themselves in an entire novel In order to reach and engage all students teachers need to look beyond novels alone and embrace a richer variety of literature In Less Is More Kimberly Hill Campbell draws on research as well as her own classroom experiences to show how short texts engage a wide range of middle and high school students She shares her discovery of the power of short texts to support her students skills as readers writers and students of literature Kimberly shows how short texts can be integrated into the curriculum without sacrificing required novels Chapters examine different genres of short text such as short stories essays memoir and graphic novels Each chapter provides reading writing and response strategies as well as a broad selection of short text resources that have proven effective with a wide range of students

Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, 2001 Negotiated Memory Julie Rak, 2004 The Doukhobors Russian speaking immigrants who arrived in Canada beginning in 1899 are known primarily to the Canadian public through the sensationalist images of them as nude protestors anarchists and religious fanatics representations largely propagated by government commissions and the Canadian media In Negotiating Memory Julie Rak examines the ways in which autobiographical strategies have been employed by the Doukhobors themselves in order to retell and reclaim their own history Drawing from oral interviews court documents government reports prison diaries and media accounts Rak demonstrates how the Doukhobors employed both classic and alternative forms of autobiography to communicate their views about communal living vegetarianism activism and spiritual life as well as to pass on traditions to successive generations More than a historical work this book brings together recent theories concerning subjectivity autobiography and identity and shows how Doukhobor autobiographical discourse forms a series of ongoing negotiations for identity and collective survival that are sometimes successful and sometimes not An innovative study Negotiating Memory will appeal to those interested in autobiography studies as well as to historians literary critics and students and scholars of Canadian cultural studies
