Eberhart, 2017-09-28 Critical and creative studies that offer fresh perspectives on ancient ideas and practices The contributions to this volume deal in various ways with the cult at the Jerusalem Temple that epitomized the religious cultural and socio political identity of Judaism for many centuries Some essays examine ancient constitutive practices and concepts such as purification rituals sacrifices atonement or sacred authorities at the temple with the goal of interpreting their meanings for modern readers Other essays explore alternatives to ancient cultic meaning and practice Essays critique established traditions attempt to renegotiate them or use metaphor and spiritualization to expand the potential of these phenomena to serve as terminological and ideological resources Thus they examine and affirm the continuing relevance of ancient Jewish cultic notions long after the destruction of the Second Temple in 70 CE An international group of scholars representing different fields and diverse religious backgrounds A thorough examination of traditions as through the lens of contemporaneous interpretive traditions such as Jewish prophecy the Dead Sea Scrolls and Early Christian literature Examination of topics such as purification sacrifice and atonement and the depiction and development of sacred authority throughout the Bible Holiness Hannah K. The Sacred and Its Scholars Thomas A. Idinopulos, Edward A. Yonan, 1996 This volume of essays is devoted to a careful examination of the importance of methodology in the study of primary religious data The essays focus on the Sacred as an ultimate object of descriptive analysis and critical scrutiny on the part of a select number of North American and European methodologists in the study and teaching of the history of religions and its allied disciplines The central question to which the contributors respond are these What is the Sacred Is it a being or a concept of a being is it a mental state or an objective reality or something else entirely Can the Sacred be described as an empirical fact or as a formal rule for religious inquiry If the Sacred is a valid category in the study and teaching of religion then what can be said about the antithesis of the sacred namely the profane or the secular This volume probes these questions with great care in order to justify a number of ways the Sacred can be construed as an indispensable notion for the study and teaching of religion Animal Theology Andrew Linzey, 1995 Animal rights is animal theology The author argues that historical theology creatively defined must reject humanocentricity He questions the assumption that if theology is to speak on this issue it must only do so on the side of the oppressors His theological query investigates not only the abstractions of theory but also the realities of hunting animal experimentation and genetic engineering He is an important pioneering Christian voice speaking for those who cannot speak for themselves Christian Eschatology and the Physical Universe David Wilkinson, 2010-07-29 This book argues that the Christian understanding of new creation speaks powerfully to both theologians and scientists
