The Image of Asia in Children's Literature, 1814-1964 Cécile Parrish, 1977 Representations of China in British Children's Fiction, 1851-1911 Shih-Wen Chen, 2016-04-08 In her extensively researched exploration of China in British children's literature Shih Wen Chen provides a sustained critique of the reductive dichotomies that have limited insight into the cultural and educative role these fictions played in disseminating ideas and knowledge about China Chen considers a range of different genres and types of publication travelogue storybooks historical novels adventure stories and periodicals to demonstrate the diversity of images of China in the Victorian and Edwardian imagination Turning a critical eye on popular and prolific writers such as Anne Bowman William Dalton Edwin Harcourt Burrage Bessie Marchant G A Henty and Charles Gilson Chen shows how Sino British relations were influential in the representation of China in children's literature challenges the notion that nineteenth century children's literature simply parroted the dominant ideologies of the age and offers insights into how attitudes towards children's relationship with knowledge changed over the course of the century Her book provides a fresh context for understanding how China was constructed in the period from 1851 to 1911 and sheds light on British cultural history and the history and uses of children's literature

Iranun and Balangingi James Francis Warren, 2002 The aim of this book is to explore ethnic cultural and material changes in the transformative history's of oceans and seas commodities and populations mariners and ships and raiders and refugees in Southeast Asia with particular reference to the Sulu Mindanao region or the Sulu Zone Examining the profound changes that were taking place in the Sulu Mindanao region and elsewhere at the end of the eighteenth century this book the companion volume to The Sulu Zone published in 1981 establishes an ethnohistorical framework for understanding the emerging inter connected patterns of global commerce long distance maritime trading and the formation and maintenance of ethnic identity It also provides a new conceptual framework for understanding the problem of ethnic self definition and political processes and conflicts in the recent history of the Philippines Indonesia and Malaysia Iranun and Balangingi seeks to probe these themes through an interdisciplinary approach using archival sources and literature as well as period testimony interviews diaries and fieldwork observations from sites primarily located in the Philippines Indonesia and Malaysia

An Analysis of Children's Books about Indonesia Published in the United States 1960-1980 Riris K. Sarumpaet, 1983 Political Agenda of Education Krishna Kumar, 2005-04-07 When it was first published in 1991 Political Agenda of Education was hailed as an outstanding contribution to educational theory This thoroughly revised edition sharpens the focus and explanatory range of the original framework In particular the author has incorporated the complex terrain of gender and girls education while bringing in a more nuanced discussion of caste as a factor of equality in educational opportunity The book is divided into two parts Part I analyzes the circumstances surrounding the establishment of a colonial system of educational administration and the implications it had for both teaching and curriculum Part II locates educational reform within the dynamics of the three major quests of the freedom struggle the demand for equal participation in education by the lower castes the quest for self identity and the idea of progress Krishna Kumar uses the history of ideas to develop insights which are highly relevant for the challenges facing the system of education in India and the rest of South Asia today Politics of Education in Colonial India Krishna Kumar, 2015-08-12 In retracting from the popular view that India's modern educational policy was shaped almost entirely by Macaulay this incisive work reveals the complex ideological and institutional rubric of the colonial educational system It examines its wide ranging and lasting impact on curriculum pedagogy textbooks teachers role and status and indigenous forms of knowledge Recounting the nationalist response to educational reforms the book reinforces three major quests justice as expressed in the demand for equal educational opportunities for the lower castes self identity as manifest in the urge to define India's educational needs from within its own cultural repertoire and the idea of progress based on industrialization An exceptional contribution to educational theory including a nuanced discussion of caste gender and girls education this book will be invaluable to teachers scholars and students of education modern Indian history and sociology of education and policy makers National Register of Microform Masters Library of Congress.
