reveals the secret US agenda behind the war on terror in Africa and the shocking methods used to perpetuate the myth that the region is a hotbed of Islamic terrorism Africa expert Jeremy Keenan points to overwhelming evidence suggesting that from 2003 the Bush administration and Algerian government were responsible for hostage takings blamed on Islamic militants This created a permissive public attitude allowing the US to establish military bases in the region and pursue multiple imperial objectives in the name of security The shocking revelations in this book undermine the mainstream view of Africa as a legitimate second front in the war on terror Indigeneity on the Move Eva Gerharz, Nasir Uddin, Pradeep

Chakkarath, 2017-12-29 Indigeneity has become a prominent yet contested concept in national and international politics as well as within the social sciences This edited volume draws from authors representing different disciplines and perspectives exploring the dependence of indigeneity on varying sociopolitical contexts actors and discourses with the ultimate goal of investigating the concept s scientific and political potential The Reindeer People Piers Vitebsky, 2006 Cambridge anthropologist Piers Vitebsky the first westerner to live with the Eveny of Siberia since the Russian revolution brings readers an extraordinary case of survival in one of the most inhospitable places on Earth of photos Indigenouness in Africa

Felix Mukwiza Ndahinda, 2011-04-27 With a Foreword by Prof Asbjørn Eide a former Chairman of the UN Working Group on Indigenous Populations Chairman of the UN Working Group on Minorities President of the Advisory Committee on National Minorities of the Council of Europe Following the internationalization of the indigenous rights movement a growing number of African hunter gatherers pastoralists and other communities have channelled their claims for special legal protection through the global indigenous rights movement Their claims as the indigenous peoples of Africa are backed by many international actors such as indigenous rights activists donors and some academia However indigenous identification is contested by many African governments some members of non claimant communities and a number of anthropologists who have extensively interacted with claimant indigenous groups This book explores the sources as well as the legal and political implications of indigenous identification in Africa By highlighting the quasi inexistence of systematic and discursive rather than activist studies on the subject matter the analysis questions the appropriateness of this framework in efforts aimed at empowering claimant communities in inherently multiethnic African countries The book navigates between various disciplines in trying to better capture the phenomenon of indigenous rights advocacy in Africa The book is valuable reading for academics in law and all other social sciences such as anthropology sociology history political science as well as for economists It is also a useful tool for policy makers legal practitioners indigenous rights activists and a wide range of NGOs Dr Felix Mukwiza Ndahinda is Associate Professor at the International Victimology Institute Tilburg INTERVICT Tilburg University The Netherlands

The Revival of Tradition in Indonesian Politics Jamie Davidson, David Henley, 2007-03-12 This important resource provides detailed coverage of the growing significance of adat in Indonesian politics It identifies its origins the historical factors that have conditioned it and the reasons behind its recent blossoming
