ePDF and ePUB available Open Access under CC BY NC licence During the 20th century the locus of care shifted from large institutions into the community However this shift was not always accompanied by liberation from restrictive practices In 2014 a UK Supreme Court ruling on the meaning of deprivation of liberty resulted in large numbers of older and disabled people in care homes supported living and family homes being re categorized as detained Placing this ruling in its social historical and global context this book presents a socio legal analysis of social care detention in the post carceral era Drawing from disability rights law and the meanings of home and institution it proposes solutions to the Cheshire West ruling s paradoxical implications Catalogue of the Loan Exhibition for the Benefit of the Institution's Building Fund
