The Humanities In Three Cities An Inquiry Approach:

The Humanities in Three Cities, an Inquiry Approach ,1969 Resources in Education ,1988 Research in Education ,1974 The New Social Studies Barbara Slater Stern,2009-11-01 This volume The New Social Studies People Projects and Perspectives is not an attempt to be the comprehensive book on the era Given the sheer number of projects that task would be impossible However the current lack of knowledge about the politics people and projects of the NSS is unfortunate as it often appears that new scholars are reinventing the wheel due to their lack of knowledge about the history of the social studies field The goal of this book then is to sample the projects and individuals involved with the New Social Studies NSS in an attempt to provide an understanding of what came before and to suggest guidance to those concerned with social studies reform in the future especially in light of the standardization of curriculum and assessment currently underway in many states The authors who contributed to this project were recruited with several goals in mind including a broad range of ages interests and experiences with the NSS from participants during the NSS era through new young scholars who had never heard much about the NSS As many of the authors remind us in their chapters much has been written of the failure of the NSS However in every chapter of this book the authors also point out the remnants of the projects that remain Catalog of Copyright Entries. Teacher's Guide for The Humanities in Three Cities John M. Good,Edwin Fenton,1969 The National union catalog, 1968-1972 ,1973 The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 In the Shadow of Authoritarianism Thomas D. Fallace,2018-08-17 In the Shadow of Authoritarianism explores how American educators in the wake of World War I created a student centered curriculum in response to authoritarian threats abroad For most of the 20th century American educators lived in the shadow of ideological political cultural and existential threats including Prussianism propaganda collectivism dictatorship totalitarianism mind control the space race and moral relativity To meet the perceived threat the American curriculum was gradually moved in a more student centered direction that focused less on what to think and more on how to think This book examines the period between World War I and the 1980s focusing on how U S schools countered the influence of fascist and communist ideologies as well as racial discrimination Fallace also considers this approach in light of current interests in the Common Core State Standards Book Features Places American educational ideas in a global context Outlines how events overseas shaped challenged and supported the ideals of progressive and postwar education Discusses a major reorientation in democratic education from ideological commitment to ideological skepticism before and after World War II Examines how leading American educators cited the work of educational philosopher John Dewey in different ways before and after World War II Traces how educators responded to epistemological issues surrounding propaganda and indoctrination precursors to fake news and alternative facts Basic Tools for Communicating and Learning Creative Arts and Humanities Education Programs,1983
