The Incubator Baby Ellis Parker Butler,2014-01-09 On the sunniest slope of the garden of Paradise the trees stand in long pleasant rows The air is always balmy and the trees are forever in bloom with pink and white blossoms From a distance the trees look like apple trees but close at hand you see that the pink and white blossoms are little bows and streamers of ribbon and that the boughs are swaying gently with the weight of many dimpled babies Walking up and down beneath the trees are kind old storks and as they walk they turn their heads looking upward to see where there may be a sweet pink and white baby ready to be carried away out of the garden into the big strange world It is a vast garden and there are many trees and many storks and every moment there is a whirring of strong wings and a stork has passed out of the confines of the garden with the dearest gift that Heaven can give to woman
