Writing About Architecture Alexandra Lange, 2012-02-29 Extraordinary architecture addresses so much more than mere practical considerations It inspires and provokes while creating a seamless experience of the physical world for its users It is the rare writer that can frame the discussion of a building in a way that allows the reader to see it with new eyes Writing About Architecture is a handbook on writing effectively and critically about buildings and cities Each chapter opens with a reprint of a significant essay written by a renowned architecture critic followed by a close reading and discussion of the writer's strategies Lange offers her own analysis using contemporary examples as well as a checklist of questions at the end of each chapter to help guide the writer This important addition to the Architecture Briefs series is based on the author's design writing courses at New York University and the School of Visual Arts Lange also writes a popular online column for Design Observer and has written for Dwell Metropolis New York magazine and The New York Times Writing About Architecture includes analysis of critical writings by Ada Louise Huxtable

Lewis Mumford Herbert Muschamp Michael Sorkin Charles Moore Frederick Law Olmsted and Jane Jacobs Architects covered include Marcel Breuer Diller Scofidio Renfro Field Operations Norman Foster Frank Gehry Frederick Law Olmsted SOM Louis Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright Women's Economic Writing in the Nineteenth Century Lana L.

Dailey, 2023-05-31 Women's Economic Writing in the Nineteenth Century is the first comprehensive collection of women's economic writing in the long nineteenth century. The four-volume anthology includes writing from women around the world, showcasing the wide variety and range of economic writing by women in the period and establishes a tradition of women's economic writing. Selections include didactic tales, fictional illustrations, poetry, economic theory, social theory, reports, letters, novels, speeches, dialogues, and self-help books. The anthology is divided into eight themed sections: political economy, feminist economics, domestic economics, labor, philanthropy, and poverty, consumerism, emigration and empire, and self-help. Each section begins with an introduction that tells a story about women writers' relationship to the section theme and then provides an overview of the selections contained therein. Women's Economic Writing in the Nineteenth Century demonstrates just how common it was for women to write about economics in the nineteenth century and establishes important throughlines and trajectories within their body of work.

Teach Writing Well Ruth Culham, 2023-10-10 Ask great writers what the key to writing well is, and they will tell you: revision. Author Ruth Culham, both a successful writer and writing teacher, understands the challenges elementary teachers face when teaching writing and revision and now shares her knowledge in Teach Writing Well: How to Assess Writing, Invigorate Instruction, and Rethink Revision. Divided into two parts, Culham's book provides ways to teach that are both accessible to the teacher and student. You will find techniques to assess writing that are practical and results-driven. Inside, you'll discover Culham's traits of writing and how to use them to read and assess student work. Ways to guide revision decisions using these traits as common language. How to address challenges students may face within the different modes of writing: narrative, expository, and persuasive. Strategic lessons to teach the writer that scaffold students towards making their own craft decisions. A chapter on mentor texts which can be used to model traits and key qualities for your students. Teach Writing Well pulls best practices together and shows writing with fresh eyes.

Technical Writing for Teams Alexander Mamishev, Sean Williams, 2011-02-11 A unique integrative, team-centered approach to writing and formatting technical documents. Technical Professionals: Do you have difficulty producing high-quality documents with multiple contributors when faced with a tight deadline? Do you need a process that enables global team members to collaborate online as they produce sophisticated documents? Do you prefer the ease of a WYSIWYG desktop publishing tool like Microsoft Word rather than more complex software like LaTeX? Professors and Graduate Students: Do you want to streamline the process of writing multi-investigator papers, reports, proposals, and books? Do you spend a lot of time formatting documents instead of thinking and writing? Do you write research papers in Microsoft Word and then need to convert them to LaTeX for your thesis? Do you write research papers in LaTeX and then need to convert them to Microsoft
